Directors responsibilities

Company law requires the director to prepare financial statements for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company at the end of each financial year and of the profit or loss of the company for that period. In preparing those financial statements, the director is required to:

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the company will continue in business.

The director is responsible for maintaining proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the company and enable him to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act. He is also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

Political and charitable donations

The company made no political or charitable contributions during the year.

Small company exemption

This report has been prepared in accordance with the special provisions of Part VII of the Companies Act 1985 relating to small companies and the Financial Reporting Standard For Smaller Entities.

This report was approved by the board on 29th January 2001 and signed on its behalf by:

Notes to the financial statements

1 Accounting Policies

Accounting convention

The financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost convention and in accordance with applicable accounting standards.

Depreciation

Depreciation is provided on all tangible fixed assets at a rates calculated to write off the cost, less estimated residual value, of each asset over its expected useful life, as follows:

Office equipment	25% pa straight line

Cash flow statement

The financial statements do not include a cash flow statement because the company, as a small reporting entity, is exempt for the requirement to prepare such a statement under Financial Reporting Standard 1

Deferred taxation

Deferred taxation is provided on all timing differences to the extent that it is probable that a liability will arise at the rate at which the tax will be payable when the timing differences reverse. No provision for deferred taxation has been made in these financial statements as there are no timing differences on which a liability may arise.

2 Turnover

Turnover represents the invoiced amount of goods sold and services provided stated net of value added tax.
