DIRECTORS' RESPONSIBILITIES

Company law requires the directors to prepare accounts for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company and of the profit or loss of the company for that period. In preparing those accounts, the directors are required to

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently,
- make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent,
- follow applicable accounting standards, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the accounts,
- prepare the accounts on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the company will continue in business

Directors are responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the company and to enable them to ensure that the accounts comply with the Companies Act 1985. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities

In preparing the above report, the directors have taken advantage of special exemptions applicable to small companies

In approving these financial statements the directors of the company confirm

- that for the year in question the company was entitled to the exemption covered by S 249A(1) of the Companies Act 1985
- that no notice has been deposited at the registered office of the company pursuant to S 249B(2) requesting that an audit be conducted for the year ended 31st October 2006
- that we acknowledge our responsibilities for
  - ensuring that the Company keeps accounting records which comply with S221, and
  - preparing accounts which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the Company as at the end of the financial year of its profit for the year then ended and which otherwise comply with the provisions of the Companies Act 1985 relating to accounts, so far as applicable to the Company

We have taken advantage of special exemptions applicable to small companies and have done so on the grounds that, in our opinion, the company is entitled to those exemptions as a small company
