DIRECTOR RESPONSIBILITIES

Company law requires the director to prepare accounts for each financial year, which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company and of the profit and loss of the company for that period. In preparing those accounts, the director is required to:

- Select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently.
- Make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent.
- Prepare the accounts on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the company will continue in business.

The director is responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the company and to enable them to ensure that the accounts comply with the Companies Act 2006. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

ACCOUNTANT'S REPORT TO THE SHAREHOLDERS FOR THE YEAR ENDED 31ST DECEMBER 2014

I have examined, without carrying out an audit, the accounts for the year ended 31st December, 2014 set out on pages 6 to 11.

As described on page 4, the company's director is responsible for the preparation of the accounts and they believe that the company is exempt from an audit. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts and, based on my examination, to report my opinion, as set below, to the shareholders.

I conducted my examination in accordance with the appropriate standards for reporting accounts issued by the Auditing Practices Board. This examination consisted of comparing the accounts with the accounts records kept by the company and making such limited enquires of the officers of the company as I considered necessary for the purposes of this report.

The examination was not an audit conducted in accordance with the Auditing Standards. Accordingly, I do not express an audit opinion on the accounts. Therefore, my examination does not provide any assurance that the accounting records and the accounts are free from material misstatement.

In my opinion, the accounts are in agreement with those accounting records kept by the company under section 386 of the Companies Act 2006.

Having regard only to, and on the basis of, the information contained in those accounting records the accounts have been drawn up in a manner consistent with the accounting requirements specified in section 477 of the Act.

The company satisfied the conditions for exemptions from an audit of the accounts for the specified in section 477 of the Act and did not, at any time within that year, fall within any of the categories of companies not entitle to the exemption specified in section 477.
