1 Accounting policies

Basis of preparation

The full financial statements, from which these abbreviated accounts have been extracted, have been prepared under the historical cost convention and in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard for Smaller Entities (Effective April 2008).

Turnover

Turnover is the amount charged to lessees for services provided.

Depreciation

Following the granting of extensions of leases to the Members of the Company and the resulting diminution in value of the Freehold Land and Buildings, their value has been written down to £8. No depreciation is provided as any charge would not be material.

Asset class	Depreciation method and rate
Freehold land and buildings	Nil

Financial instruments

Financial instruments are classified and accounted for, according to the substance of the contractual arrangement, as financial assets, financial liabilities or equity instruments. An equity instrument is any contract that evidences a residual interest in the assets of the company after deducting all of its liabilities. Where shares are issued, any component that creates a financial liability of the company is presented as a liability in the balance sheet. The corresponding dividends relating to the liability component are charged as interest expense in the profit and loss account.
