RISK MANAGEMENT

Last year the Trustees discussed the review of any major risks which the charity faces and developed an assessment. The three main areas of risk identified by the trustees were 1) loss of coordinator funding 2) coordinator deciding to leave the post, 3) Loss of development worker and 4) loss of sessional workers. Following the identification of these risks, the trustees developed a reserves policy to cover all four eventualities, and this was put in place.

RESERVES POLICY

Following the formal risk assessment conducted by the trustees, they decide that it was extremely important for the charity to have sufficient funds for the charity to be able, in all identified risk areas, to continue to run the service for the period of one year, during which the trustees could seek additional funding. This is considered necessary for the reason of the uniquely specialist nature of the services provided by the charity, and the time implications involved.

TRUSTEES' RESPONSIBILITY STATEMENT

Charity and Company law requires the Trustees to prepare accounts for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the charity and of its income and expenditure for that period. In preparing the attached accounts the Trustees consider the charity has

- * used suitable accounting policies and then applied them consistently,
- * made judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent,
- * stated whether applicable accounting standards have been followed, subject to any material departures disclosed and explanations in the accounts, and
- * has prepared the accounts on the going concern basis

The Trustees have responsibility for maintaining proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at anytime the financial position of the charity and enable it to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 2006. They also have responsibility for safeguarding the assets of the charitable company and hence for taking reasonable steps to prevent and detect fraud and other irregularities.

MEMBERS OF THE BOARD

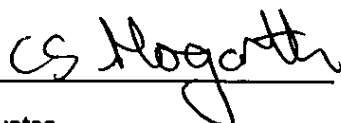

Members of the Board, who are directors for the purpose of company law and trustees for the purpose of charity law, who served during the year are set out on page 3.

In accordance with company law, as the company's directors, we certify that

- * So far as we are aware, there is no relevant accounts information of which the company's examiners are unaware, and
- * As directors of the company we have taken all the steps that we ought to have taken in order to make ourselves aware of any relevant audit information and to establish that the charity's examiners are aware of that information.

INDEPENDENT EXAMINERS

Harwood Lane & Co were re-appointed as the charity's Independent Examiners during the year and have expressed their willingness to continue in that capacity.

INDEPENDENT EXAMINER'S REPORT TO THE TRUSTEES OF THE BATTLE AGAINST TRANQUILLISERS LIMITED

I report on the accounts of the Company for the year ended 31 March 2012, which are set out on pages 17 to 13

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiners

The trustees (who are also the directors of the company for the purposes of company law) are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year under section 144(2) of the Charities Act 2011 (the 2011 Act) and that an independent examination is needed. The charity's gross income exceeded £250,000 and I am qualified to undertake the examination by being a qualified member of the Institute of Chartered Accountants in England and Wales.

Having satisfied myself that the charity is not subject to audit under company law and is eligible for independent examination, it is my responsibility to

- examine the accounts under section 145 of the 2011 Act,
- to follow the procedures laid down in the General Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the 2011 Act, and
- to state whether particular matters have come to my attention

Basis of independent examiners' report

My examination was carried out in accordance with the General Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from you as trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and, consequently, no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a true and fair view and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statement below.

Independent examiner's statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention

- (1) which give me reasonable cause to believe that, in any material respect, the requirements
- to keep accounting records in accordance with s386 of the Companies Act 2006, and
 - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and to comply with the accounting requirements of section 396 of the Companies Act 2006 and with the methods and principles of the Statement of Recommended Practice Accounting and Reporting by Charities

have not been met, or

- (2) to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached
