Statement of directors' responsibilities

The directors are required by United Kingdom company law to prepare financial statements for each financial year that gives a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company at the end of the financial year and the profit or loss of the company for that period. In preparing those financial statements, the directors are required to

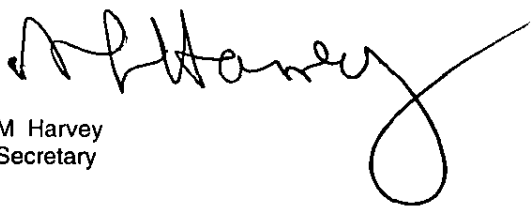

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently,
- make judgments and estimates that are reasonable and prudent,
- state whether applicable accounting standards have been followed, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements, and
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis, unless it is inappropriate to presume that the company will continue in business

The directors are responsible for maintaining proper accounting records that disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the company and to enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 1985. They are also responsible for the system of internal control, safeguarding the assets of the company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

Auditors

The company has passed an elective Resolution to dispense with the laying of accounts and annual reports before members in general meeting under the provisions of part VII of the Companies Act, 1985.
