Directors' Responsibilities

Company law requires the director to prepare financial statements for each financial year, which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company and of the profit and loss of the company for that year. In preparing these the director is required to :

- select suitable accounting policies and apply them consistently;
- make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent unless it is inappropriate to presume that the company will continue in business.

The director is responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the company and to enable him to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 1985. He is also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the company and hence for taking responsible steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularites.

This report is prepared in accordance with the special provisions of Part VII of the Companies Act 1985 relating to small companies.

This report was approved by the Board on? and signed on its behalf by

NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS FOR THE YEAR ENDED 31, DECEMBER 2003

1. Accounting Policies

1.1 Accounting Convention

The financial statements are prepared under the historical cost convention.

The company has taken advantage of the exemption in FRS1 from the requirement to produce a cashflow statement because it is a small company.

1.2 Turnover

Turnover represents the total invoice value, excluding value added tax, of sales made during the year.

1.3 Tangible fixed assets and depreciation

Depreciation is provided at rates calculated to write off the cost residual value of each asset over its expected useful life as follows:-

Fixtures, Fittings and equipment -

20% Reducing balance

1.4 Leasing

Rentals payable under operating leases are charged against income on a straight line basis over the lease term.

1.5 Stock

Stock is valued at the lower of cost and net realisable value.

1.6 Pensions

The pension costs charged in the financial statements represent the contribution payable by the company during the year.

The regular cost of providing retirment pensions and related benefits is charged to the profit and loss account over the employees' service lives on the basis of a constant percentage of earnings.

1.7. Deferred taxation

Provision is made for deferred taxation using the liability method to take account of timing differences between the incidence of income and expenditure for taxation and accounting purposes except to the extent that the directors consider that a liability to taxation is unlikely to materialise.

2. Turnover

The total turnover of the company for the year has been derived from its principal activity wholly undertkaen in the UK.
