NATIONAL GAS MUSEUM TRUST

Report of the Trustees for the year ended 31 December 2010

The Trustees, who are also Directors of the Company for the purposes of the Companies Act, submit their Annual Report and the Financial Statement for the year ended 31 December 2010. The Trustees have adopted the provisions of the Statement of Recommended Practice (SORP) "Accounting and Reporting by Charities" issued in 2005 in preparing the Annual Report and Financial Statements of the Charity

The Charity is a charitable Company limited by guarantee and was incorporated on 16 July 1997. The principal objectives of the company are

- 1 to ensure that the artefacts that were previously held by the Museum at Bromley-by-Bow in London (now closed) and those currently held by the John Doran Gas Museum in Leicester are preserved for future generations
- 2 to establish a 'living collection' by providing a mechanism that would ensure gas artefacts from the present and future are collected, maintained and displayed

Review of activities

The statement of financial activities for the year is set out on page 4 of the Financial Statements

During the year the Charity has continued cataloguing the paper based material within the collection. The Charity continues to fund and operate the John Doran Museum in Leicester providing access to the existing collection to the public

Investment policy

The Charity has adopted a policy of investing any surplus cash on a risk-free basis in bank deposits

Reserves

This year has been the eleventh year of activity of the Charity. The Trustees will continue to seek donations to cover the current commitments of the Charity and ensure that it has sufficient resources to provide uninterrupted services for the future

Future liabilities

The Charity has no known liabilities other than the costs of operating the John Doran Museum (c£8,000 per annum)

Report of the Trustees for the year ended 31 December 2010 - continued

Governance and internal control

The list of Trustees (page 1) shows the names of current Trustees. All served throughout the year, with the exception of Scott Boose, who resigned on the 13 December 2010 and Jeff Greene and Jon Butterworth who were appointed on the 13 December 2010.

The Charity does not have formal induction training for new Trustees but the majority of Trustees have extensive experience of either the gas industry or the work of museums. The Charity does ensure the Trustees are kept up to date in changes in the law and rules governing charities by giving access to Charity material via the Charities Commission website.

Company law requires the Trustees to prepare Financial Statements for each financial year that give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the Charity and of its net movements in funds for the financial year.

In preparing those Financial Statements the Trustees are required to

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently,
- make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent,
- state whether applicable accounting standards have been followed, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the Financial Statements, and
- prepare the Financial Statements on the going concern basis, unless it is inappropriate to presume that the Charity will continue in business.

The Trustees confirm that they have complied with the above requirements in preparing the Financial Statements.

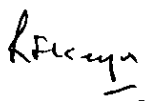

The Trustees are responsible for keeping proper accounting records that disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the Charity and enable them to ensure that the Financial Statements comply with the Companies Act 2006. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the Charity and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

In this period of activity, the Trustees believe that the risks to the Charity are minimal and where there might be risks, processes in place are sufficient to mitigate them.

Auditors

The Charity has taken advantage of the exemptions under the Companies Act 2006 and the Charities Acts 1993 and 2006 not to appoint auditors.

This report was approved by the Trustees on the 20th September 2011 and was signed on their behalf by

Rod Kenyon, Trustee
