All current directors are also members of the company and have undertaken to contribute a maximum of £1 in the event of the company being wound up.

Directors' Responsibilities

Company Law requires the directors to prepare accounts for each financial year, which give a true and fair view of the state of the affairs of the company and of the profit or loss of the company for that period. In preparing these accounts, the Directors are required to select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently, make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent and prepare the accounts on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the company will continue in business.

The directors are responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the company and to enable them to ensure that the accounts comply with the Companies Act 2006. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

Small Company Disclosure

In preparing these financial statements, the directors have taken advantage of the special exemptions applicable to companies subject to the small companies' regime. These accounts have been prepared and delivered in accordance with the micro-entity provisions.
