Dear Sir or Madam

Consolidated Insurance Holdings Limited (In Members' Voluntary Liquidation) ("the Company")

Samantha Keen and I were appointed as Joint Liquidators of the Company on 26 September 2019.

I now write to provide you with our report on the progress of the liquidation for the period from 26 September 2021 to 25 September 2022.

In accordance with the provisions of the Insolvency (England and Wales) Rules 2016 ("the Rules"), we are required to provide certain information about the Company and the Liquidators. This information can be found in Appendix A of this report. A copy of our receipts and payments account for the period from 26 September 2021 to 25 September 2022, incorporating a cumulative receipts and payments account for the period from 26 September 2019 to 25 September 2022 is at Appendix B.

Progress during the period of this report

Assets

There have been no receipts during the period of this report.

As at the date of liquidation, the Company held an investment of £2 in its subsidiary, GE Keynes Holdings Limited (now Dissolved) ("the Subsidiary"), together with an associated £2 intercompany payable balance also due to its Subsidiary. In September 2022, the liquidation of the Subsidiary was concluded and as such, on 23 September 2022, the Company received an in specie distribution, thereby cancelling out both the investment and payable balances.

The Company's only asset remaining asset is an intercompany receivable in the sum of £1 due from Key Leasing Limited ("the Shareholder"). It is expected that this asset will be distributed in specie to the Shareholder prior to conclusion of the liquidation.

Liabilities

There have been no payments during the period of this report.

The Company had no known external creditors as at the date of liquidation. In accordance with Rule 14.28 of the Rules, an advert was placed in the London Gazette requesting creditors of the Company to prove their claims by 30 November 2019. No such claims were received.

The UK Firm Ernst & Young LLP is a limited liability partnership registered in England and Wales with registered number OC300001 and is a member firm of Ernst & Young Global Limited. A list of members' names is available for inspection at 1 More London Place, London SE1 2AF, the firm's principal place of business and registered office and at Companies House [https://www.gov.uk/get-information-about-a-company] under the registration number OC30001. Not all partners are members of Ernst & Young LLP. Ernst & Young LLP is a multi-disciplinary practice and is authorised and regulated by the Institute of Chartered Accountants in England and Wales, the Solicitors Regulation Authority (authorisation number 196203) and other regulators. Further details can be found at https://www.ey.com/en_uk/legal-statement.

As previously reported, the Company had an open tax enquiry relating to a pre-liquidation period. During the period of this report, GE Capital group ("the Group") and their tax advisors have advised the Liquidators that the enquiry has now been resolved. Accordingly, the Joint Liquidators are now in the process of obtaining the relevant tax clearances from HM Revenue and Customs and, once received, the Joint Liquidators will proceed with conclusion of the liquidation.

Joint Liquidators' remuneration and expenses

Our remuneration was fixed on a time-cost basis by a resolution of the sole member on 26 September 2019 and has been paid by another group company. There is no recourse to the estate in respect of our fees where such contractual arrangement exists.

Details of amounts paid, name of the payor and the relationship between the payor and the Company, are available upon request to me at 1 More London Place, London, SE1 2AF.

During the liquidation, we have incurred expenses relating to statutory advertising and statutory bonding which have also been paid by another group company without recourse to the liquidation estate.

Members' rights to further information about, and challenge, remuneration and expenses

In certain circumstances, members are entitled to request further information about our remuneration or expenses, or to apply to court if members consider the costs to be excessive. Further information is provided in Appendix C.

Should you wish to discuss any matters arising from this report, please do not hesitate to contact Katie McGinn on the direct line shown above.

Yours faithfully for the Company

Richard Barker Joint Liquidator

Members' rights to request further information about remuneration or expenses or to challenge a liquidator's remuneration – Rules 18.9 and 18.34 of the Insolvency (England and Wales) Rules 2016 (as amended)

18.9 Creditors' and members' request for further information

- 18.9.—(1) The following may make a written request to the office-holder for further information about remuneration or expenses (other than pre-administration costs in an administration) set out in a progress report under rule 18.4(1)(b), (c) or (d) or a final report or account under rule 18.14—
- (a) a secured creditor;
- (b) an unsecured creditor with the concurrence of at least 5% in value of the unsecured creditors (including the creditor in question);
- (c) members of the company in a members' voluntary winding up with at least 5% of the total voting rights of all the members having the right to vote at general meetings of the company;
- (d) any unsecured creditor with the permission of the court; or
- (e) any member of the company in a members' voluntary winding up with the permission of the court.
- (2) A request, or an application to the court for permission, by such a person or persons must be made or filed with the court (as applicable) within 21 days of receipt of the report or account by the person, or by the last of them in the case of an application by more than one member or creditor.
- (3) The office-holder must, within 14 days of receipt of such a request respond to the person or persons who requested the information by—
- (a) providing all of the information requested;
- (b) providing some of the information requested; or
- (c) declining to provide the information requested.
- (4) The office-holder may respond by providing only some of the information requested or decline to provide the information if—
- (a) the time or cost of preparation of the information would be excessive; or
- (b) disclosure of the information would be prejudicial to the conduct of the proceedings;
- (c) disclosure of the information might reasonably be expected to lead to violence against any person; or
- (d) the office-holder is subject to an obligation of confidentiality in relation to the information.
- (5) An office-holder who does not provide all the information or declines to provide the information must inform the person or persons who requested the information of the reasons for so doing.
- (6) A creditor, and a member of the company in a members' voluntary winding up, who need not be the same as the creditor or members who requested the information, may apply to the court within 21 days of—
- (a) the office-holder giving reasons for not providing all of the information requested; or
- (b) the expiry of the 14 days within which an office-holder must respond to a request.
  - (7) The court may make such order as it thinks just on an application under paragraph (6).

18.34 Members' claim that remuneration is excessive

- 18.34.—(1) This rule applies to an application in an administration, a winding-up or a bankruptcy made by a person mentioned in paragraph (2) on the grounds that—
- (a )the remuneration charged by the office-holder is in all the circumstances excessive;
- (b) the basis fixed for the office-holder's remuneration under rules 18.16, 18.18, 18.19, 18.20 and 18.21 (as applicable) is inappropriate; or
- (c) the expenses incurred by the office-holder are in all the circumstances excessive.
- (2) The following may make such an application for one or more of the orders set out in rule 18.36 or 18.37 as applicable—
- (a) a secured creditor,
- (b) an unsecured creditor with either—
- (i) the concurrence of at least 10% in value of the unsecured creditors (including that creditor), or
- (ii) the permission of the court, or
- (c) in a members' voluntary winding up-
- (i) members of the company with at least 10% of the total voting rights of all the members having the right to vote at general meetings of the company, or
- (ii) a member of the company with the permission of the court.
- (3) The application by a creditor or member must be made no later than eight weeks after receipt by the applicant of the progress report under rule 18.3, or final report or account under rule 18.14 which first reports the charging of the remuneration or the incurring of the expenses in question ("the relevant report").
