NOTES ON FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

For the year ended 31 December 2000

1. Accounting policies

Basis of accounting

The financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost convention and in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard for Smaller Entities (effective March 2000).

The company has taken advantage of the exemption from preparing a cash flow statement as conferred by Financial Reporting Standard No. 1 (Revised 1996) on the grounds that it qualifies as a small company under the Companies Act 1985.

Turnover

Turnover represents annual subscriptions received from members for 2000. The company is not registered for value added tax purposes.

2. Operating deficit

	2000 £	1999 £
The operating deficit is stated after charging:
Directors' emoluments	Nil	Nil

3. Taxation

The company is exempt from UK taxation as a non-profit making company owned by its members for their mutual benefit. The taxation charge represents corporation tax at 10% (1999 - 20%) on the investment income received.

4. Subsidiary Company – wholly owned

The Company owns one share (100%) in Grand College Trading Limited, a company incorporated in England. The preparation of consolidated financial accounts is not considered appropriate, as the results of the subsidiary company will not materially affect this Company's results.

5. Members' liabilities

The Memorandum of Association includes for the liability of its members to be limited and every member of the Company undertakes to contribute such amount as may be required, but not exceeding £1, to the Company's assets if it should be wound up while he is a member or within one year after he ceases to be a member, for payment of the Company's debts and liabilities contracted before he ceases to be a member, and of the costs, charges and expenses of winding up.
