Statement of directors' responsibilities

The directors are responsible for preparing the annual report and the financial statements in accordance with applicable law and regulations.

Company law requires the directors to prepare financial statements for each financial year. Under that law the directors have elected to prepare the financial statements in accordance with applicable law and United Kingdom Accounting Standards (United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice). The financial statements are required by law to give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company and of the profit or loss of the company for that period. In preparing those financial statements, the directors are required to

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently,
- make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent,
- state whether applicable United Kingdom Accounting Standards have been followed, and
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the company will continue in business.

The directors are responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the company and to enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 2006. The directors are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

Notes to the accounts

For the period ended 28 December 2014

1 Accounting policies

The accounting policies have all been applied consistently throughout the period and the preceding period. The financial statements are prepared in accordance with applicable law and United Kingdom Accounting Standards. The particular accounting policies adopted are described below.

Basis of accounting

The financial statements are prepared under the historical cost convention.

Consolidated financial statements and cash flow statements

The company is exempt under section 400 of the Companies Act 2006 from preparing group financial statements for the company and its subsidiaries, as the company is a wholly owned subsidiary of a company incorporated in England and Wales. Therefore, these financial statements represent those of the company and not the group.

2. Information regarding directors and employees

The company has no employees. The directors received no remuneration in respect of services to the company in the period or prior period.

3 Profit and loss account

The company has not traded in the period or prior period and, accordingly, it has made neither a profit nor a loss. No profit and loss account has therefore been prepared.

4. Investments

	Investments in group undertakings £
Cost and net book value
At beginning and end of period	2

The principal subsidiary undertaking of the company is as follows:
