Notes to the financial statements

1. Financial commitments, guarantees and contingencies

NBA Group Limited is a Company limited by guarantee, and therefore there are no shares in issue.

Every member of the Company undertakes to contribute to the assets of the Company, in the event of the same being wound up while he is a member, or within one year after he ceases to be a member, for payment of the debts and liabilities of the Company contracted before he ceases to be a member, and of the costs, charges and expenses of winding up, and for the adjustment of the rights of the contributories among themselves, such amount as may be required not exceeding £1.

If upon the winding up or dissolution of the Company there remains, after the satisfaction of all its debts and liabilities, any property whatsoever, the same shall not be paid to or distributed among the members of the Company, but shall be given or transferred to some other charitable institution or institution having objects similar to the objects of the Company, and which shall prohibit that distribution of its or their income and property among its or their members to an extent at least as great as is imposed on the Company under or by virtue of clause 4 hereof, such institution or institutions to be determined by the members of the Company at or before the time of dissolution, and if so far as effect cannot be given to such provisions, then to some charitable object.

The company has not traded during the year or the preceding financial period. During this time the company received no income and incurred no expenditure and therefore no profit and loss account is presented in these financial statements.

NBA Group is a private company limited by shares incorporated in England and Wales. The registered office is 2-6 Adventure Place, Hanley, Stoke on Trent, Staffordshire, ST1 3AF.

The directors of the company have elected not to include a copy of the profit and loss account within the financial statements.
