Accountants' Report

To The Registrar Of Companies

The following reproduces the text of the report prepared for the purposes of section 249A(2) Companies Act 1985 in respect of the company's annual accounts, from which the abbreviated accounts (set out on pages 1 to 4) have been prepared

"We report on the accounts for the year ended 30 September 2009 set out on pages 4 to 8

Respective Responsibilities Of The Director And Reporting Accountants

As described on page 6 the company's director is responsible for the preparation of the accounts, and she considers that the company is exempt from an audit. It is our responsibility to carry out procedures designed to enable us to report our opinion.

Basis Of Opinion

Our work was conducted in accordance with the Statement of Standards for Reporting Accountants, and so our procedures consisted of comparing the accounts with the accounting records kept by the company, and making such limited enquiries of the officers of the company as we considered necessary for the purposes of this report. These procedures provide only the assurance expressed in our opinion.

Opinion

In Our Opinion

- (A) the accounts are in agreement with the accounting records kept by the company under section 221 of the Companies Act 1985,
- (B) having regard only to, and on the basis of, the information contained in those accounting records
 - (i) the accounts have been drawn up in a manner consistent with the accounting requirements specified in section 249C(6) of the Act, and
 - (ii) the company satisfied the conditions for exemption from an audit of the accounts for the year specified in section 249A(4) of the Act and did not, at any time within that year, fall within any of the categories of companies not entitled to the exemption specified in section 249B(1) "
