The Museums, Libraries and Archives Council - In Members' Voluntary Liquidation (the Company)

I refer to my appointment as liquidator of the Company by its members on 6 July 2012

I am now in a position to report on the progress of the liquidation for the period from 6 July 2014 to 5 July 2015. I attach the following:

- Appendix 1, the information prescribed under the Insolvency Act 1986 relating to the Company,
- Appendix 2, an account of my receipts and payments in the liquidation for the periods
 6 July 2014 to 5 July 2015 and 6 July 2012 to 5 July 2015,
- Appendix 3, an extract from the Insolvency Rules 1986 relating to the members' rights to request additional information from the liquidator, and
- Appendix 4, an extract from the Insolvency Rules 1986 relating to members' rights to challenge the liquidator's fees if excessive

Realisation and distribution of assets

The trustees' statutory declaration of solvency made on 6 July 2012 disclosed that the sole asset of the Company was other property at a value of £684,790, matched by the Company's actual and contingent liabilities

The Company's asset was assigned to the Department for Culture, Media and Sport (DCMS) prior to the Company being placed into liquidation. Accordingly, DCMS are responsible for settling any liabilities of the Company.

There have been no receipts or payments in the liquidation, although I note that DCMS directly received utility refunds due to the Company totalling £79. Attached at Appendix 2 is an abstract of my receipts and payments for the periods 6 July 2014 to 5 July 2015 and 6 July 2012 to 5 July 2015.

As previously reported, the Company has a potential liability of approximately £500,000 due its pension providers, in respect of exit and transfer charges, which DCMS has agreed to settle in full once the liability has been fully determined. This cannot be concluded until all members' pension schemes have been transferred and I am advised that all steps are being taken to identify and trace the necessary parties to effect these transfers. I continue to liaise with DCMS in order to resolve this outstanding matter, however until the liability has been determined and settled the liquidation will remain open.

Liquidator's fees and disbursements

On 6 July 2012 the members resolved that my fees for acting as liquidator of the Company, be fixed by reference to my time costs. Disbursements have been incurred in the liquidation in relation to statutory advertising and bonding costs.

My fees and disbursements for acting as liquidator of the Company are being met by DCMS, in accordance with a pre-liquidation written contract, with whom I will correspond separately in respect of these

I attach at Appendix 4 a copy of Rule 4 148C of the Insolvency Rules 1986 relating to a liquidator's remuneration, edited for members' voluntary liquidations

 - (iii) the liquidator is subject to an obligation of confidentiality in respect of the information, give reasons for not providing all of the information
- 4 Any member of the company, who need not be the same as the member(s) who asked for the information, may apply to the court within 21 days of the giving by the liquidator of reasons for not providing all of the information asked for, or the expiry of the 14 days from the date the information was requested, and the court may make such order as it thinks just

Appendix 4 - Rule 4.148C: Members' claim that a liquidator's remuneration is excessive (edited for application to a members' voluntary liquidation)

- 1 Members of the company with at least 10% of the total voting rights of all the members having the right to vote at general meetings of the company, or any member with the permission of the court, may apply to the court for one or more of the orders in paragraph 6 on the grounds that.

- 4 If the application is not dismissed under paragraph 3, the court must fix a venue for it to be heard and give notice to the applicant accordingly
- The applicant must at least 14 days before the hearing send to the liquidator a notice stating the venue and accompanied by a copy of the application and of any evidence which the applicant intends to adduce in support of it
