We refer to the above matters, in relation to which a combined application hearing took place before District Judge Mauger on 11 March 2020 at 15:15. We act for the administrators in these matters.

At that hearing, District Judge Mauger granted Orders in the form sought, extending the administrations of each of the above companies until 15 March 2023. However, we have not yet received copies of the sealed Orders.

We and counsel's clerks (of South Square Chambers) have made a number of attempts to contact you seeking an update on the status of the sealed Orders over the past few weeks, both via telephone and via email, however we have not received a response so far. We assume that this is likely due to the current difficult circumstances of the COVID-19 crisis.

The administrators are mindful of their obligation to notify the Registrar of Companies and the creditors of each company of the extension of each administration. As such they intend to make such notifications now rather than waiting for the sealed Orders, and will enclose a copy of this letter when doing so. However they will also forward the sealed Orders upon receipt, and so would be grateful to receive the sealed Orders as soon as reasonably practicable. We enclose again for your reference copies of the draft Orders. The Orders were endorsed by District Judge Mauger in this form and stamped as such at the hearing on 11 March 2020.

Yours faithfully
