NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

FOR THE YEAR ENDED 28 FEBRUARY 2019

1 Accounting policies

General information

Wynnstay Arts Consulting Limited ("the company") did not trade during the financial year.

The company is a limited company and is incorporated and domiciled in England and Wales. The registered office is 16 Lincoln's Inn Fields, London, WC2A 3ED.

1.1 Accounting convention

These financial statements have been prepared in compliance with United Kingdom Accounting Standards, including Section 1A of Financial Reporting Standard 102, "The Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the United Kingdom and the Republic of Ireland" ("FRS102") and the Companies Act 2006.

FRS102 allows a qualifying entity certain disclosure exemptions. The company has taken advantage of the exemptions available to it as a small entity with regards to the requirement to publish a cash flow statement in accordance with Part 15 of the Companies Act 2006.

1.2 Going concern

After reviewing the company's forecasts, the directors have a reasonable expectation that the company has adequate resources to continue in operational existence for the foreseeable future. The company therefore continues to prepare its financial statements on the going concern basis, under the historical cost convention.

1.3 Administrative costs

Administrative costs refers to all costs relating to operating the business and are accounted for on an accruals basis.

1.4 Interest

Income and expenditure arising on financial instruments is recognised on an accruals basis and taken to the profit and loss account in the financial period in which it arises.

Interest allocated from connected entities is interest earned on cash deposits held with Brunswick Group LLP, a connected entity, which acts as an agent in relation to interest receivable and allocates interest to related entities when amounts become receivable.

1.5 Cash at bank and in hand

Cash at bank and in hand includes cash in hand and deposits held at call with banks.

1.6 Connected undertakings

Connected undertakings are defined as those entities with which one or more directors of the company also have an interest. The connected undertakings with which the company had any business dealings during the financial year are disclosed in Note 5 - Related party disclosures.

2 Judgements and key sources of estimation uncertainty

In the application of the company's accounting policies, the directors are required to make judgements, estimates and assumptions about the carrying amount of assets and liabilities that are not readily apparent from other sources. The estimates and associated assumptions are based on historical experience and other factors that are considered to be relevant. Actual results may differ from these estimates.

The estimates and underlying assumptions are reviewed on an ongoing basis. Revisions to accounting estimates are recognised in the period in which the estimate is revised where the revision affects only that period, or in the period of the revision and future periods where the revision affects both current and future periods.
