The board of directors has taken advantage of the exemptions conferred by section 249A(1) not to have these accounts audited and confirm that no notice has been deposited under section 249B(2) of the Companies Act 1985.

The board acknowledges its responsibility for ensuring that:

- (i) the company keeps accounting records which comply with section 221 of the Companies Act 1985, and
- (ii) The accounts give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company as at 30 March 2004 and of its profit for the period then ended in accordance with the requirements of section 226, and which otherwise comply with the requirements of the Companies Act 1985 relating to accounts, so far as applicable to the company.

The board of directors has taken advantage of the special exemptions conferred by Schedule 8 to the Companies Act 1985 applicable to small companies in the preparation of the financial statements and has done so on the grounds that, in its opinion, the company is entitled to those exemptions.
