GENERAL MEETINGS

- 9 The Company shall hold a General Meeting in every calendar year as its Annual General Meeting at such time and place as may be determined by the Executive Committee, and shall specify the meeting as such in the notices calling it, provided that every Annual General Meeting except the first shall be held not more than fifteen months after the holding of the last preceding Annual General Meeting, and that so long as the Company holds its first Annual General Meeting within eighteen months after its incorporation it need not hold it in the year of its incorporation or in the following year
- 10 All General Meetings, other than Annual General Meetings, shall be called Extraordinary General Meetings
- 11 The Executive Committee may whenever they think fit convene an Extraordinary General Meeting and Extraordinary General Meetings shall also be convened on the requisition of members of the Company pursuant to the provisions of the Act
- 12 At least fourteen clear days' notice in writing of every Annual General Meeting and of every meeting convened to pass a Special Resolution, and at least fourteen clear days' notice in writing of every other General Meeting, specifying the place, the day and the hour of meeting, and in the case of special business the general nature of that business, shall be given to such persons as are under the Articles or under the Act entitled to receive such notices from the Company, but with the consent of (in the case of an Annual General Meeting) all members and (in the case of any other General Meeting) members having at least 90% of the voting rights at the meeting intended to be convened and in either case having the right to attend and vote thereat, a meeting may be convened by such notice as those members may think fit
- 13 The accidental omission to give notice of a meeting to, or the non-receipt of notice of a meeting by, any person entitled to receive notice thereof shall not invalidate any resolutions passed, or proceeding had, at that meeting The person chairing the meeting in accordance with this article is referred to as "the Chairman of the meeting"

PROCEEDINGS AT GENERAL MEETINGS

- 14 All business shall be deemed special that is transacted at an Extraordinary General Meeting, and all that is transacted at an Annual General Meeting shall also be deemed special, with the exception of the consideration of the accounts and the reports of the Executive Committee
- 15 No business shall be transacted at any General Meeting unless a quorum is present when the meeting proceeds to business Save as herein otherwise provided ten persons entitled to vote upon the business to be transacted, each being a member of the Company or a proxy for a member of the Company or a duly authorised representative of a member, or one tenth of the total number of such persons for the time being, whichever is the greater, shall be a quorum
- 16 If within half an hour from the time appointed for the holding of a General Meeting a quorum is not present, the meeting, if convened on the requisition of members, shall be dissolved In any other case it shall stand adjourned to the same day in the next week, at the same time and place, or at such other place as the Executive Committee may determine, and if at such adjourned meeting a quorum is not present within half an hour from the time appointed for holding the meeting the members present shall be a quorum

- 17 The Secretary-General of the Company shall preside as chairman at every General Meeting at which he shall be present, but if he is not present within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for holding a meeting, or is unwilling to preside, the members present shall choose some member or its duly authorised representative, in either case who shall be present, to preside at that meeting
- 18 The chairman may, with the consent of any meeting at which a quorum is present (and shall if so directed by the meeting) adjourn the meeting from time to time, and from place to place, but no business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than business which might have been transacted at the meeting from which the adjournment took place Whenever a meeting is adjourned for thirty days or more, notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given in the same manner as of an original meeting Save as aforesaid, the members shall not be entitled to any notice of an adjournment, or of the business to be transacted at an adjourned meeting The person chairing a meeting in accordance with this article is referred to as "he Chairman of the meeting"
- 19 At any General Meeting a resolution put to the vote of the meeting shall be decided on a show of hands, unless a poll is, before or upon the declaration of the result of the show of hands, demanded by the chairman or by any member or members present in each case in person or by proxy or by its duly authorised representative, and representing not less than one tenth of the total voting rights of all the members having the right to vote at the meeting Unless a poll be so demanded a declaration by the chairman that a resolution has been carried, or carried unanimously or by a particular majority, or lost, or not carried by a particular majority, and an entry to that effect in the minute book of the Company shall be conclusive evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against that resolution The demand for a poll may be withdrawn, before the poll is taken
- 20 Subject to the provisions of Article 15, if a poll be demanded in manner aforesaid, it shall be taken at such time and place, and in such manner, as the chairman shall direct, and the result of the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded
- 21 No poll shall be demanded on the election of a chairman of a meeting, or on any question of adjournment
- 22 In the case of an equality of votes, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, the chairman shall be entitled to a second or casting vote
- 23 The demand of a poll shall not prevent the continuance of a meeting for the transaction of any business other than the question on which a poll has been demanded

VOTES OF MEMBERS

- 24 Subject as hereinafter provided, every member shall have one vote
- 25 Save as herein expressly provided, no person other than a member duly registered, which has paid all moneys then due to the Company, or the duly authorised representative of such member, shall be entitled to vote on any question either personally or by proxy at any General Meeting
- 26 Votes may be given on a poll either personally or by proxy
- 27 The instrument appointing a proxy shall be in writing under the hand of the appointor or his attorney duly authorised in writing
- 28 The instrument appointing a proxy and the Power of Attorney or other authority (if any) under which it is signed or a notarially certified or office copy thereof shall be deposited at the Office not less than forty-eight hours before the time appointed for holding the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the person named in the instrument proposes to vote (or in the case of a poll not less than twenty-four hours before the time appointed for the taking of the poll) and in default the instrument of proxy shall not be treated as valid No instrument appointing a proxy shall be valid after the expiration of twelve months from the date of its execution

29 A vote given in accordance with the terms of an instrument of proxy shall be valid notwithstanding the previous death or revocation of the proxy or of the authority under which the proxy was executed, provided that no intimation in writing of the death, insanity or revocation as aforesaid shall have been received at the Office before the commencement of the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the proxy is used

30 Any instrument appointing a proxy shall be in the following form or as near thereto as circumstances will admit

of,

a member of The Association of European Lawyers, hereby appoint

and failing him/her,

the case may be] General meeting of the Company to be held on the day of

and at every adjournment thereof

As witness my hand/the hand of our duly appointed representative

this [] day of [] []"

31 The instrument appointing a proxy shall be deemed to confer authority to demand or join in demanding a poll

THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

32 The Executive Committee shall consist of not less than three but (unless otherwise determined by Ordinary Resolution of the Company) not more than twelve persons appointed initially by the subscribers to the Memorandum of Association but thereafter from time to time as provided subsequently in the Articles

POWERS OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

33 The business of the Company shall be managed by the Executive Committee who may exercise all such powers of the Company, and do on behalf of the Company all such acts as may be exercised and done by the Company, and as are not by statute or by the Articles required to be exercised or done by the Company in General Meeting, subject nevertheless to 33 1 the provisions of the Articles,

- 33 2 the provisions of the statutes for the time being in force and affecting the Company, and
- 33 3 such regulations, being not inconsistent with the aforesaid provisions, as may be prescribed by the Company in General Meeting provided that no regulation made by the Company in General Meeting shall invalidate any prior act of the Executive Committee which would have been valid if such regulation had not been made
- 34 The Executive Committee for the time being may act notwithstanding any vacancy in their number but, if the number of Directors is less than the number fixed as the quorum the continuing Directors or Director may act only for the purpose of filling vacancies or of calling a General Meeting
- 35 In addition and without prejudice to any other powers hereby or by law conferred on the Executive Committee the Executive Committee may from time to time and for such period and to such extent and generally on such terms as the Executive Committee shall think fit delegate to any Director or Directors and/or any employee of the Company employed in or in connection with the management, administration, organisation and conduct of the affairs of the Company any powers and duties of the Executive Committee as may be reasonable
- 36 The Executive Committee may appoint as the investment manager for the Company a person who they are satisfied after inquiry is a proper and competent person to act in that capacity and who is an authorised or an exempted person within the meaning of the Financial Services Act 1986 otherwise than exempted by virtue of Section 45(1)(j) of that Act The Executive Committee may delegate to an investment manager so appointed power at his discretion to buy and sell investments for the Company in accordance with the investment policy laid down by the Executive Committee from time to time
- 37 The Executive Committee may
- 37 1 make such arrangements as they think fit for any investments of the Company or income from those investments to be held by a corporate body as the Company's nominee, and
- 37 2 pay reasonable and proper remuneration to any corporate body acting as the Company's nominee in pursuance of this Article
- 38 Each Director may be repaid out of the funds of the Company such reasonable out-of-pocket expenses as the Executive Committee shall from time to time determine in respect of his or her attendance at meetings of the Executive Committee or on behalf of the affairs of the Company but save as aforesaid in the Articles no member of the Company nor any Director shall receive any remuneration from the Company

APPOINTMENT AND RETIREMENT OF DIRECTORS

- 39 No person shall be appointed or reappointed a Director at any General Meeting unless he is a duly authorised representative of a member of the Company, and
- 39 1 he is recommended by the Directors, or
- 39 2 not less than thirty nor more than sixty clear days before the date appointed for the meeting, notice executed by a member qualified to vote at the meeting has been given to the Company of the intention to propose that person for appointment or reappointment stating the particulars which would, if he were so appointed or reappointed, be required to be included in the Company's Register of Directors together with a notice executed by that person of his willingness to be appointed or reappointed
- 40 No person may be appointed as a Director
- 40 1 unless he has attained the age of 18 years, or
- 40 2 in circumstances such that, had he already been a Director, he would have been disqualified from acting under the provisions of Article 44

- 41 Not less than fourteen nor more than fifty clear days before the date appointed for holding a General Meeting notice shall be given to all persons who are entitled to receive notice of the meeting of any person who is recommended by the Directors for appointment or reappointment as a Director at the meeting or in respect of whom notice has been duly given to the Company of the intention to propose him at the meeting for appointment or reappointment as a Director. The notice shall give the particulars of that person which would, if he were so appointed or reappointed, be required to be included in the Company's Register of Directors
- 42 Subject as otherwise provided in the Articles, the Company may by Ordinary Resolution appoint a person who is willing to act to be a Director either to fill a vacancy or as an additional Director
- 43 The Executive Committee may appoint a person who is willing to act to be a Director either to fill a vacancy or as an additional Director provided that the appointment does not cause the number of Directors to exceed any number fixed by or in accordance with the Articles as the maximum number of Directors. A Director so appointed shall hold office only until the next following Annual General Meeting. If not reappointed at such Annual General Meeting, he shall vacate office at the conclusion thereof

DISQUALIFICATION OF DIRECTORS

- 44 The office of Director shall be vacated
- 44 1 if he ceases to be a director by virtue of any provision of the Act or is prohibited from being a director by law, or
- 44 2 if by notice in writing to the Company he resigns from the Executive Committee (but only if at least two Directors remain in office when the notice of resignation is to take effect), or
- 44 3 if he is removed by notice in writing to the Company signed by a majority of the members of the Company, or
- 44 4 if he ceases to be a duly authorised representative of a member of the Company, or
- 44 5 if he ceases to hold office by reason of any order made under the Company Directors Disqualification Act 1986, or
- 44 6 if he is removed from office by an ordinary resolution duly passed pursuant to S 168 of the Act, or
- 44 7 if he is absent from three consecutive meetings of the Executive Committee without the consent of the Secretary-General, or
- 44 8 if he becomes incapable by reason of mental disorder, illness or injury of managing and administering his own affairs, or
- 44 9 if he is convicted of any criminal offence other than any minor motoring or similar offence that cannot reasonably damage the reputation of the Company, or
- 44 10 if in the case of an individual, he dies, he becomes bankrupt or makes any arrangement or composition with his creditors generally, or the Director being a corporation, an order is made or resolution is passed for its winding up or administration or distribution or it has a receiver appointed over all or some part of its assets

PROCEEDINGS OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

- 45 The Executive Committee may meet together for the dispatch of business, adjourn and otherwise regulate their meetings as they think fit, and determine the quorum necessary for the transaction of business, provided that such meetings are held at least twice during every year. Unless otherwise determined, three Directors shall be a quorum. Questions arising at any meeting shall be decided by a majority of votes. In cases of equality of votes the chairman of the meeting shall have a second or casting vote.

- 46 The Secretary-General or two Directors may, and on the request of the Secretary-General or such Directors the Secretary shall, at any time, summon a meeting of the Executive Committee by notice served upon all Directors.
- 47 A meeting of the Executive Committee at which a quorum is present shall be competent to exercise all the authorities, powers and discretions by or under the regulations of the Company for the time being vested in the Executive Committee generally.
- 48 The Executive Committee may delegate any of their powers to committees consisting of such Director or Directors and others as they think fit, and any committee so formed shall, in the exercise of the powers so delegated, conform to any regulations imposed on it by the Executive Committee. The meetings and proceedings of any such committee shall be governed by the provisions of the Articles for regulating the meetings and proceedings of the Executive Committee so far as applicable and so far as the same shall not be superseded by any regulations made by the Executive Committee.
- 49 All acts bona fide done by any meeting of the Executive Committee or of any committee of the Executive Committee, or by any person acting as a committee member, shall, notwithstanding it be afterwards discovered that there was some defect in the appointment or continuance in office of any such person, or that they or any of them were disqualified, be as valid as if every such person had been duly appointed or had duly continued in office and was qualified to be a Director or member of the committee as the case may be.
- 50 The Executive Committee shall cause proper minutes to be made of all appointments of officers made by the Executive Committee and of the proceedings of all meetings of the Company and of the Executive Committee and of committees of the Executive Committee, and all business transacted at such meetings, and any such minutes of any meeting, if purporting to be signed by the chairman of such meeting, or by the chairman of the next succeeding meeting, shall be sufficient evidence without any further proof of the facts therein stated.
- 51 A resolution in writing signed by all the Executive Committee or by all the members for the time being of any committee of the Executive Committee who are entitled to receive notice of a meeting of the Executive Committee or of such committee shall be as valid and effectual as if it had been passed at a meeting of the Executive Committee or of such committee duly convened and constituted. Any such written instrument may be in several parts each signed by one or more Director or members of the committee as the case may be.
- 52 Any bank account in which any part of the assets of the Company is deposited shall be operated by or with the authority of the Directors and shall indicate the name of the Company.

SECRETARY-GENERAL

- 53 The Secretary-General of the Company shall be appointed by the members of the Company from the Executive Committee for a period of up to three years and upon expiry of such period shall be eligible for re-appointment upon the same terms. Provided that the Secretary-General shall cease to hold such appointment forthwith upon ceasing to be a Director.
- 54 The Secretary-General shall preside as chairman at all General Meetings of the Company and at all meetings of the Executive Committee at which he shall be present, but if he is not present within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for holding a meeting or is unwilling to preside, the members of the Executive Committee present shall choose one of their number to preside at that meeting.

ACCOUNTS

- 55 The Executive Committee shall cause proper books of account to be kept to enable accounts to be prepared which comply with the relevant provisions of the Act. Proper books shall not be deemed to be kept if there are not kept such books of account as are necessary to give a true and fair view of the state of the affairs of the Company and to explain its transactions

- 56 The books of account shall be kept at the Office, or, subject to Section 388 of the Act, at such other place or places as the Executive Committee shall think fit and shall always be open to the inspection of the Executive Committee or any Director
- 57 At the Annual General Meeting in every year the Executive Committee shall lay before the Company accounts including an income and expenditure account for the period since the last preceding accounts (or in the case of the first accounts since the incorporation of the Company) made up to a date not more than twelve months before such meeting, together with a balance sheet made up as at the same date. Such accounts shall be accompanied by a report of the Executive Committee. Copies of such accounts and reports (all of which shall be framed in accordance with any statutory requirements for the time being in force) and of any other documents required by law to be annexed or attaching thereto or to accompany the same shall not less than fourteen clear days before the date of the meeting be sent to all persons entitled to receive notices of General Meetings in the manner in which notices are hereinafter directed to be served
- 58 Except as provided by law or authorised by the directors or an ordinary resolution of the Company, no person is entitled to inspect any of the Company's accounting or other records or documents merely by virtue of being a member

- 59 A notice may be served by the Company upon any member, either personally or by sending it through the post in a prepaid letter, addressed to such member at his registered address as appearing in the register of members, or by electronic communication or partly by one such means and partly by another
- 60 Any notice, if served by post, shall be deemed to have been served on the fourth day following that on which the letter containing the same is put into the post, and in proving such service it shall be sufficient to prove that the letter containing the notice was properly addressed and put into the post office as a first class prepaid letter. A notice served by facsimile or email shall be deemed to have been served upon successful transmission

- 61 Subject to Article 62, a relevant director of the Company or an associated company may be indemnified out of the Company's assets against any liability incurred by him in that capacity in defending any proceedings, whether civil or criminal, in which judgment is given in his favour or in which he is acquitted or in connection with any application in which relief is granted to him by the Court from liability for negligence, default, breach of duty or breach of trust in relation to the affairs of the Company, and against all costs, charges, losses, expenses or liabilities incurred by him in the execution and discharge of his duties or in relation thereto
- 62 Article 61 does not authorise any indemnity which would be prohibited or rendered void by any provision of the Companies Act or by any other provision of law
- 63 In these Articles
- 63 1 Companies are associated if one is a subsidiary of the other or both are subsidiaries of the same body corporate, and
- 63 2 a "relevant director" means any director or former director of the company or an associated company

RULES

- 64 The Executive Committee may from time to time make, alter, add to or repeal such rules or bye-laws as they deem necessary or expedient or convenient for the proper conduct and management of the Company. Provided that the Executive Committee shall adopt such means as it thinks sufficient to bring to the notice of members of the Company all such rules or bye-laws. Provided further that no rule or bye-laws shall be inconsistent with, or shall affect or repeal anything contained in the Articles of Association

ALTERATIONS

- 65 No alterations shall be made to the Articles except by a resolution put to a General Meeting of the Company by the Executive Committee (a simple majority of whom at a duly convened meeting of the Executive Committee shall decide to put such resolution to a General Meeting) and passed at such General Meeting (of which at least fourteen days notice has been given) by three-quarters of those present and voting at such General meeting

DISSOLUTION

- 66 The liability of the members is limited
- 67 Every member of the Company undertakes to contribute to the assets of the Company, in the event of the same being wound up while he or she is a member, or within one year after he or she ceases to be a member, for payment of the debts and liabilities of the Company contracted before he or she ceases to be a member, and of the costs, charges and expenses of winding up, and for the adjustment of the rights of the contributories among themselves, such amount as may be required not exceeding one Euro
- 68 If upon the winding up or dissolution of the Company there remains, after the satisfaction of all its debts and liabilities, any property whatsoever, the same shall not be paid to or distributed among the members of the Company, but shall be given or transferred to such other organisation which prohibit(s) the distribution of its or their income and property to an extent at least as great as is imposed upon the Company by Article 3 above and having objects identical with or similar to the Objects, as the members of the Company shall resolve at or before the time of dissolution and if that cannot be done to some other object or objects which will benefit education in and/or the development of commercial law in Europe
