to the Charity; provided that any such insurance shall not extend to any claim arising from any act or omission which the Trustee knew to be a breach of trust or breach of duty or which was committed by the Trustees in reckless disregard of whether it was a breach of trust or breach of duty or not and provided also that any insurance shall not extend to the costs of an unsuccessful defence to a criminal prosecution brought against the Trustee in their capacity as charity trustees.

- 4.17 Power to invest or deposit funds in any lawful manner (but to invest only after obtaining appropriate advice and having regard to the suitability of investments and the need for diversification).
- 4.18 Power to do all such other lawful things as are necessary for the achievement of the objects.

CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

- 5.1 The income and property of the Charity shall be applied solely towards the promotion of its objects set out in this Memorandum. No part shall be paid or transferred directly or indirectly to members of the Charity for any services given to the Charity with the exception of reasonable travelling and other out of pocket expenses necessarily incurred in carrying out the duties of any member or officer of the Charity.
- 5.2 No member of the Trustee Board and no connected person shall acquire any interest in property belonging to the Charity (otherwise than as a trustee for the Charity) or receive remuneration or be interested in any way (otherwise than as a member of the Trustee Board) in any contract entered into by the Charity.

Provided this does not exclude:

- a) the payment of reasonable out of pocket expenses incurred on behalf of the Charity;
- b) the payment of premiums on indemnity insurance effected in accordance with Clause 4.16
- c) fees, or other benefits to any company of which a Trustee is also a member holding not more than 1/100th part of the capital;
- d) the usual professional charges for business done by any Trustee who is a solicitor, accountant or other person engaged in a profession, or by his or her firm, when instructed by the Charity to act in a professional capacity on its behalf; except that at no time shall a majority of the members of the Charity or of the Trustee Board benefit under this provision and provided that any such member or Trustee shall withdraw from any meeting at which his or her appointment or remuneration or that of his or her partner is under discussion.

(For the purpose of this clause "connected persons" means the spouse, child, parent, grandparent, grand child, brother, sister or other person in a long-term or significant relationship with a Trustee Board member).

- 5.3 Any member of the Trustee Board who is nominated by a member organisation or who is in any way connected to a member organisation or body giving funds to the Charity, is first and foremost a member of the Trustee Board and therefore must act in the interests of the Charity even if this conflicts with the policies of the organisation or body by which s/he is nominated or to which s/he is connected.

LIMITED LIABILITY

- 6.1 The liability of the members is limited.
- 6.2 Every member of the Charity undertakes to contribute such amount as may be required, not exceeding £1, to the Charity's assets if it should be wound up while they are a member or within one year after they cease to be a member:-
- a) for the payment of the Charity's debts and liabilities contracted before they ceased to be a member;
  - b) for the costs, charges and expenses of winding up; and
  - c) for the adjustment among themselves of the rights of persons who have contributed to the Charity's assets.

Amendment

- 7.1 The Memorandum and Articles of Association of the Charity may be amended in accordance with the Companies Act 1985 and the Charities Act 1993 (or any statutory re-enactment or modification of these Acts) provided that no amendment shall be made which is inconsistent with the policies of the National Association of Citizens Advice Bureaux and no amendment shall be made without the consent of NACAB.

Dissolution

- 8.1 If any property remains after the Charity has been wound up or dissolved and all debts and liabilities have been satisfied, it shall not be paid to or distributed among members of the Charity. It shall instead be given or transferred to some other charitable institution or institutions having similar objects to those of the Charity and which prohibits the distribution of its or their income and property among its or their members to an extent at least as great as Clause 5 of this Memorandum imposes upon the Charity. The institution or institutions which are to benefit shall be chosen by the members of the Charity at or before the time of winding up or dissolution. A copy of the statement of accounts, or account and statement for the final accounting period of the Charity must be sent to the Charity Commission.

WE, the subscribers to this Memorandum, wish to be formed into a company in accordance with this Memorandum.

MEMBERSHIP

Admission of members

- 3 The subscribers to the Memorandum and such other persons as are admitted to membership in accordance with the Articles, shall be members of the Charity. Every person who wishes to become a member shall apply to the Charity for membership in such a way as the Trustee Board may require.
- a) individuals (over the age of 18 years) living or working within the area of benefit who are interested in furthering the work of the charity and who have paid any annual subscription laid down from time to time by the trustee board, and who are not paid workers at the bureau; and
  - b) any body corporate or unincorporated association which is interested in furthering the charity's work and is admitted to membership in accordance with article 4 and has paid any annual subscription laid down from time to time by the trustee board (any such body being called in these articles a "member organisation").
4. At the ordinary meeting of the Trustee Board immediately preceding the annual general meeting, the Trustee Board shall review member organisations and consider any application for membership or any proposal from a Trustee to offer membership to any organisation. Any decision to admit a new member organisation will require the approval of a majority of at least two thirds of the Trustees present. The Trustee Board shall also consider for how long the organisation may be a member and whether to invite the organisation to nominate a representative to the Trustee Board in accordance with Article 38.
- 5 Each member organisation (if applicable) shall appoint an individual to represent it and to vote on its behalf at meetings of the Charity; and may appoint someone else (an alternate) to attend any meeting of the Charity if the appointed representative is unable to attend.
- 6 Each member organisation (if applicable) shall notify the Secretary of the name of the representative appointed by it and of any alternate. If the representative or alternate resigns or otherwise leaves the member organisation, he or she shall immediately cease to be the representative of the member organisation.

Termination of Membership

- 7 Membership shall not be transferable and shall cease on death. A member shall cease to be a member:-
- a) on the expiry of at least seven clear days' notice given by the member of their intention to withdraw;
  - b) if any subscription or other sum payable by the member to the Charity is not paid on the due date and remains unpaid seven days after notice served on the member by the Charity informing them that membership will be terminated if it is not paid;
  - c) if the member becomes bankrupt or makes any arrangement or composition with their creditors generally or goes into liquidation otherwise than for the purpose of a solvent reconstruction or amalgamation or has an administrator or a receiver or an administrative receiver (but not an administrative receiver appointed under Section 18 of the Charities Act 1993) appointed over all or any part of its assets or an order is made or a resolution passed for its winding up; or
  - d) the Trustee Board votes unanimously and with good reason to end the membership of any individual or member organisation. The individual or member organisation can appeal against this, by making representations to the Trustee Board, accompanied by a friend, before a final decision is made.

Subscriptions

- 8 The Trustee may at their discretion levy subscriptions on all members of the Charity at such rate(s) as they shall decide and may levy subscriptions at different rates on different categories of members.

President

- 9 The Trustees may appoint and remove a President. The position shall be unpaid and non-voting.

GENERAL MEETINGS

Annual General Meeting

- 10 The Charity shall hold an annual general meeting within 18 months of incorporation and afterwards once in each calendar year. Not more than 15 months shall pass between the date of one annual general meeting and the next. It shall be held at such time and place, as the Trustees shall think suitable.

Other General Meetings

- 11 The Trustees may call a general meeting at any time. The Trustees shall call a general meeting on receiving a requisition to that effect, signed by at least 10% of the members having the right to attend and vote at general meetings. In default, the requisitionists may call a general meeting in accordance with the Act.

Length of Notice

- 12 Unless Article 13 applies, an annual general meeting and a general meeting called to pass a special resolution or a resolution appointing a person as a Trustee shall be called by at least 21 clear days' written notice and any other general meeting shall be called by at least 14 clear days' written notice.
- 13 A general meeting may be called by shorter notice if it is so agreed:-
  - a) in the case of an annual general meeting, by all the members entitled to attend and vote at that meeting; and
  - b) in the case of any other general meeting, by a majority of the members having a right to attend and vote at that meeting. Any such majority shall together represent at least 95% of the total voting rights at that meeting of all the members.

Contents of Notice

- 14 Every notice calling a general meeting shall specify the place, day and time of the meeting and the general nature of the business to be transacted. In the case of an annual general meeting, the notice shall in addition specify the meeting as such. If a special resolution is to be proposed, the notice shall contain a statement to that effect.

Service of Notice

- 15 Notice of general meetings shall be given to every member and to the Trustees, the NACAB Regional Office and to the auditors of the Charity.

Public Notice

- 16 Public notice of every annual general meeting shall be given at least seven days before by placing a notice in the Bureau that can be clearly seen or in a prominent place in the local area and by announcing it in the local newspaper.
- 17 Anyone over the age of 18 who lives or works in the Charity's area of benefit may attend the annual general meeting.

PROCEEDINGS AT GENERAL MEETINGS

- 18 No business shall be transacted at any meeting unless a quorum is present. Ten persons entitled to vote upon the business to be transacted, each being a member or duly authorised representative of a corporate member organisation or ten percent of the total membership, whichever is the greater, shall be a quorum.
- 19 If such a quorum is not present within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting, the meeting shall stand adjourned to the same day in the next week at the same time and place or to such time and place as the Trustees may determine and if at the adjourned meeting a quorum is not present within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting the members present shall be a quorum.

- 20 A representative from the National Association of Citizens Advice Bureaux shall be invited to general meetings of the Charity and shall have the right to speak but not to vote at such meetings.
- 21 The President, or the Chair of the Trustee Board, in that order, shall be the chair of an annual general meeting. In their absence, the Vice Chair of the Trustee Board (if any) shall take the chair, and if none is in attendance the persons present, before any other business is transacted, shall appoint a chair of the meeting.
- 22 The chair of the meeting may, with the consent of a meeting at which a quorum is present (and shall if so directed by the meeting), adjourn the meeting from time to time and from place to place, but no business shall be transacted at an adjourned meeting other than business which might properly have been transacted at the meeting had the adjournment not taken place. When a meeting is adjourned for fourteen days or more, at least seven clear days' notice shall be given specifying the time and place of the adjourned meeting and the general nature of the business to be transacted. Otherwise it shall not be necessary to give any such notice.
- 23 A resolution put to the vote of the meeting shall be decided on a show of hands unless before or on the declaration of the result of the show of hands a poll is duly demanded. Subject to the provisions of the Act, a poll may be demanded:-
  - a) by the chair; or
  - b) by at least two members having the right to vote at the meeting.
- 24 Unless a poll is duly demanded a declaration by the chair that a resolution has been carried or carried unanimously, or by a particular majority, or lost, or not carried by a particular majority and an entry to that effect in the minutes of the meeting shall be conclusive evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against the resolution.
- 25 The demand for a poll may, before the poll is taken, be withdrawn but only with the consent of the chair and a demand so withdrawn shall not be taken to have invalidated the result of a show of hands declared before the demand was made.
- 26 A poll shall be taken as the chair directs and he or she may appoint scrutineers (who need not be members) and fix a time and place for declaring the result of the poll. The result of the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded.
- 27 In the case of an equality of votes, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, the chair shall be entitled to a casting vote in addition to any other vote he or she may have.

- 28 A poll demanded on the election of the chair or on a question of adjournment shall be taken forthwith. A poll demanded on any other question shall be taken either forthwith or at such time and place as the chair directs not being more than thirty days after the poll is demanded. The demand for a poll shall not prevent the continuance of a meeting for the transaction of any business other than the question on which the poll was demanded. If a poll is demanded before the declaration of the result of a show of hands and the demand is duly withdrawn, the meeting shall continue as if the demand had not been made.
- 29 No notice need be given of a poll not taken forthwith if the time and place at which it is to be taken are announced at the meeting at which it is demanded. In any other case at least seven clear days' notice shall be given specifying the time and place at which the poll is to be taken.
- 30 The proceedings at any meeting or on the taking of any poll shall not be invalidated by reason of any accidental informality or irregularity or any want of qualification in any of the persons present or voting.

Votes of members

- 31 Every member present in person shall have one vote.
