Risk Review

The trustees continue to consider carefully the potential problems caused by the transitory natures of the Centre's business, since income is mainly from hire of the building which is not guaranteed. However, there was a good balance between community and business group hire, due mainly to the excellent work by the Centre Manager to find new hirers of the Centre.

Kevin Watts has spent a lot of time in the Centre and this has enabled local people to come and see the facilities. Bookings from new groups have been made and the Centre has been the venue for an increasing number of private party bookings.

The clubs and societies continue to support the Centre and a team of volunteers from the Church help to clean, maintain and hold keys for the Centre. A great deal of goodwill is present between the clubs and societies who use the Centre and the volunteers from the Church.

The trustees continued to maintain an interest account in the bank although interest rates were very low and little growth has been seen.

The treasurer is constantly reviewing utility costs to ensure that the best deals are achieved by the Centre in order to ensure efficient handling of financial matters. A further review of both the rates offered by the gas and electricity providers will be undertaken as the contracts approach the renewal dates.

The trustees communicate regularly to review income and expenditure using a monthly statement provided by the treasurer.

Achievements and performance

The centre has had a moderately busy year with a number of regular and one-off hirers.

The following groups have been meeting regularly

Emmanuel Pentecostal Church on Saturdays, Sundays and Mondays
Shoots n Roots playgroup run by members of Emmanuel Church
Weight Watchers
Slimming World
Table Tennis Club
Keep Fit Class
Children's Parties
Family Photo Shoots
Robert Ogden School for staff training

The Centre has been used for the local and general elections.

The Centre has been used by Asda on several occasions for meetings.

The Centre was used by the police for their Scooter Safety course for the elderly

Trustees responsibilities for the financial statements

Company and charity law requires the trustees to prepare financial statements for each financial period which show the state of affairs of the charity and of net income or expenditure of the charity for that period. In preparing those financial statements, the Trustees are required to:

- ☐ select suitable accounting policies and apply them consistently;
- ☐ make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent.
- ☐ prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the charity will continue in operation.
- ☐ state whether applicable accounting standards of recommended practice have been followed subject to any departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements.

The Trustees are responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charity and enable the Trustees to prepare financial statements. The Trustees are responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charity and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention of fraud and other irregularities.

This report has been prepared in accordance with the special provisions for small companies under Part 15 of the Companies Act 2006.

This report was approved by the Trustees on 11/9/16 and is signed on their behalf by:

Independent Examiner's report on the Accounts of Houghton Road Centre for the year ended 31 March 2016

I report on the accounts of the company for the year ended 31 March 2016, which are set out on pages 7 to 10.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The charity's trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year under section 144(2) of the Charities Act 2011 (the 2011 Act) and that an independent examination is needed.

It is my responsibility to:

- ☐ examine the accounts under section 145 of the 2011 Act;
- ☐ to follow the procedures laid down in the general Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145 (5)(b) of the 2011 Act; and
- ☐ to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's report

My examination was carried out in accordance with the general Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from you as trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a 'true and fair view' and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statement below.

Independent examiner's statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention:

(1) which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:

- to keep accounting records in accordance with section 386 of the Companies Act 2006; and
- to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records, comply with the accounting requirements of section 396 of the Companies Act 2006 and with the methods and principles of the Statement of Recommended Practice: Accounting and Reporting by Charities

have not been met; or

(2) to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
