DIRECTORS' REPORT

The directors present their annual report and the audited accounts of the company for the year ended 31 May 2013

BUSINESS REVIEW AND PRINCIPAL ACTIVITY

The company is a wholly owned subsidiary of Deloitte LLP and operates as part of the group's audit division

The principal activity is the provision of audit related services to member firms of the Deloitte Touche Tohmatsu organisation

The balance sheet on page 7 of the financial statements shows that the company's financial position, in net asset terms, has improved

Overall, the directors consider the performance of the company to be in line with expectations

Deloitte LLP manages its operations on a divisional basis. For this reason the company's directors believe that further key performance indicators for the company are not necessary or appropriate for an understanding of the development, performance or position of the company. The performance of the audit division which includes this company, is discussed in the group's Annual Report for the year ended 31 May 2013 which does not form part of this report

PRINCIPAL RISKS AND UNCERTAINTIES

The company is exposed to the movement in the US Dollar exchange rates on any revenue and costs generated. The company does not hedge or enter into forward or derivative transactions and is exposed to translation and transaction foreign currency exchange risk

The company has no third party debt and therefore no interest rate exposure

Group risks are discussed in the group's Annual Report for the year ended 31 May 2013, which does not form part of this report

RESULTS AND DIVIDENDS

Turnover for the year was £nil (2012 £795,000). The profit for the year before taxation was £1,000 (2012 £3,000)

The directors do not recommend the payment of a dividend for the year (2012 £nil)

DIRECTORS' REPORT

DIRECTORS AND THEIR INTERESTS

The names of the directors are shown below. All directors served throughout the year except as noted below.

G Bunting
S Griggs

None of the directors had a beneficial interest in the share capital of the company at 31 May 2013 or any other group company apart from as members of Deloitte LLP, and therefore had an indirect beneficial interest in the share capital of the company.

All directors were remunerated as members of Deloitte LLP and received no remuneration, from any source, for services as directors of the company during the current or preceding year.

ENVIRONMENT

The Deloitte LLP group recognises the importance of its environmental responsibilities, monitors its impact on the environment, and designs and implements policies to reduce any damage that might be caused by the group's activities. The company operates in accordance with group policies, which are described in the group's Annual Report for the year ended 31 May 2013 which does not form part of this report. Initiatives designed to minimise the group's impact on the environment include recycling, waste management, energy procurement and consumption and greening the supply chain.

EMPLOYEES

Details of number of employees and related costs can be found in note 3 to the financial statements on page 8.

DISABLED EMPLOYEES

The company gives full consideration to applications for employment from disabled persons where the requirements of the job can be adequately fulfilled by a handicapped or disabled person.

Where existing employees become disabled, it is the company's policy wherever practical to provide continuing employment under normal terms and conditions and to provide training and career development and promotion wherever appropriate.

EMPLOYEE INVOLVEMENT

The company seeks to inform and consult with managers and staff regularly by way of in-house publications, informal meetings, training courses and staff development seminars, so as to involve them in the success of the business and to reward their efforts accordingly.

DIRECTORS' REPORT

DIRECTORS' RESPONSIBILITIES STATEMENT

The directors are responsible for preparing the annual report and the financial statements in accordance with applicable law and regulations

Company law requires the directors to prepare financial statements for each financial year. Under that law the directors have elected to prepare the financial statements in accordance with United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice (United Kingdom Accounting Standards and applicable law). Under company law the directors must not approve the financial statements unless they are satisfied that they give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company and of the profit or loss of the company for that period. In preparing these financial statements, the directors are required to

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently,
- make judgments and accounting estimates that are reasonable and prudent,
- state whether applicable UK Accounting Standards have been followed, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements, and
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the company will continue in business

The directors are responsible for keeping adequate accounting records that are sufficient to show and explain the company's transactions and disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the company and enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 2006. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

In so far as each of the directors is aware

- there is no relevant audit information of which the company's auditors are unaware, and
- the directors have taken all steps that they ought to have taken to make themselves aware of any relevant audit information and to establish that the auditors are aware of that information

AUDITORS

Grant Thornton UK LLP have indicated their willingness to be reappointed for another term and appropriate arrangements have been put in place for them to be deemed reappointed as auditors in the absence of an Annual General Meeting.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT TO THE MEMBERS OF DELOITTE SERVICES LIMITED

We have audited the financial statements of Deloitte Services Limited for the year ended 31 May 2013 which comprise the profit and loss account, the balance sheet and the related notes. The financial reporting framework that has been applied in their preparation is applicable law and United Kingdom Accounting Standards (United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice).

This report is made solely to the company's members, as a body, in accordance with Chapter 3 of Part 16 of the Companies Act 2006. Our audit work has been undertaken so that we might state to the company's members those matters we are required to state to them in an auditor's report and for no other purpose. To the fullest extent permitted by law, we do not accept or assume responsibility to anyone other than the company and the company's members as a body, for our audit work, for this report, or for the opinions we have formed.

Respective responsibilities of directors and auditors

As explained more fully in the Directors' Responsibilities Statement set out on page 4, the directors are responsible for the preparation of the financial statements and for being satisfied that they give a true and fair view. Our responsibility is to audit the financial statements in accordance with applicable law and International Standards on Auditing (UK and Ireland). Those standards require us to comply with the Auditing Practices Board's (APB's) Ethical Standards for Auditors.

Scope of the audit of the financial statements

A description of the scope of an audit of financial statements is provided on the APB's website at www.frc.org.uk/apb/scope/private.cfm.

Opinion on financial statements

In our opinion the financial statements

- give a true and fair view of the state of the company's affairs as at 31 May 2013 and of its result for the year then ended,
- have been properly prepared in accordance with United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice, and
- have been prepared in accordance with the requirements of the Companies Act 2006.

Opinion on other matter prescribed by the Companies Act 2006

In our opinion the information given in the Directors' Report for the financial year for which the financial statements are prepared is consistent with the financial statements.

Matters on which we are required to report by exception

We have nothing to report in respect of the following matters where the Companies Act 2006 requires us to report to you if, in our opinion:

- adequate accounting records have not been kept, or returns adequate for our audit have not been received from branches not visited by us, or
- the financial statements are not in agreement with the accounting records and returns, or
- certain disclosures of directors' remuneration specified by law are not made, or
- we have not received all the information and explanations we require for our audit.

NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

For the year ended 31 May 2013

1. ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The financial statements are prepared in accordance with United Kingdom law and accounting standards. The particular accounting policies adopted, which have been applied consistently throughout the current and preceding year are set out below.

Basis of accounting

The financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost convention.

Cash flow statement

The company has taken advantage of the exemption rules under FRS 1 'Cash Flow Statements' and has not prepared a cash flow statement as the results of Deloitte Services Limited are consolidated into the accounts of Deloitte LLP.

Revenue

Revenue represents amounts chargeable for professional services provided during the year including recoverable expenses on client assignments but excluding Value Added Tax.

Foreign currency

Transactions undertaken in foreign currencies are translated into Pounds Sterling at the rate of exchange ruling at the date of the transaction. Balances outstanding at the period end are translated into Pounds Sterling at the exchange rate ruling at the balance sheet date. All translation differences are recorded in the profit and loss account.

Current taxation

Current tax, including UK corporation tax and foreign tax, is provided at amounts expected to be paid (or recovered) using the tax rates and laws that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the balance sheet date.

2. PROFIT ON ORDINARY ACTIVITIES BEFORE TAXATION

The audit fee for the current year has been borne by Deloitte LLP.

3. INFORMATION REGARDING DIRECTORS AND EMPLOYEES

Directors

All directors were remunerated as members of Deloitte LLP, none of the directors received any remuneration from any source, for their services as directors of the company during the current or preceding year.

Employees

Other than the directors, the company had no employees during the current or preceding year.

NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

4. TAX ON PROFIT ON ORDINARY ACTIVITIES

	2013 £'000	2012 £'000
UK corporation tax	-	1
Total current tax	-	1

The difference between the total current tax charge and amount calculated by applying the standard rate of UK corporation tax to the profit before tax is as follows

Profit on ordinary activities before taxation	1	3
Tax on profit on ordinary activities at the standard rate of UK corporation tax of 23.83% (2012: 25.67%)	-	1
Total current tax	-	1

The Finance Act 2012 included legislation to reduce the main rate of corporation tax from 24% to 23% from 1 April 2013. A further reduction to the main rate has been proposed to reduce the rate by 3% to 20% by 1 April 2015. These further reductions in the tax rate had not been substantively enacted at the balance sheet date and therefore, are not reflected in these financial statements.
