Director's report

The director presents his report and financial statements for the year ended 30 June 2021.

Review of the business

G.S. Participation Ltd, the company, did not trade and had no transactions during the year.

Directors and their interests

The directors who served during the year and until the approval of the financial statements are listed on page 1.

The directors held no direct interest in the shares of the company but had an indirect interest in the entire share capital of the company by virtue of their position as members of Ernst & Young Nederland LLP, the company's ultimate parent undertaking.

Going concern

Given the nature of the company's business, COVID-19 has not had any material impact on its operations, nor is it expected to impact the going concern status of the company for the foreseeable future. The directors have a reasonable expectation that the company has adequate resources to continue in operational existence for at least 12 months from the date of approval of these financial statements.

Auditors

The company satisfies the provisions of section 480(1) of the Companies Act 2006 and accordingly the company is exempt from the obligation to appoint auditors.

For and on behalf of the Board

J Davidson

Director

Date: 4 February 2022

Statement of director's responsibilities

The director is responsible for preparing the annual report and the financial statements in accordance with applicable law and regulations.

Company law requires the directors to prepare financial statements for each financial year. Under that law the director has elected to prepare the company financial statements in accordance with international accounting standards in conformity with the requirements of the Companies Act 2006 ("IFRS"). Under company law the directors must not approve the financial statements unless they are satisfied that they give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company and the profit and loss of the company for that period. In preparing these financial statements, the director is required to:

- select suitable accounting policies in accordance with IAS 8: Accounting Policies, Changes in Accounting Estimates and Errors and then apply them consistently;
- make judgements and accounting estimates that are reasonable;
- present information, including accounting policies, in a manner that provides relevant, reliable, comparable and understandable information;
- provide additional disclosures when compliance with the specific requirements in IFRS is insufficient to enable users to understand the impact of particular transactions, other events and conditions on the Company's financial position and financial performance;
- state that the Company has complied with IFRS, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements; and
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the company will continue in business.

The director is responsible for keeping adequate accounting records that are sufficient to show and explain the Company's transactions and disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the Company and enable them to ensure that the company financial statements comply with the Companies Act 2006. He is also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the Company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.
