9. BASIS OF PREPARATION

6.

The accounts are prepared on a going concern basis. The use of the going concern basis of accounting is appropriate because there are no material uncertainties related to events or conditions that may east significant doubt about the ability of the company to continue as a going concern. There is sufficient funding in place to support the ongoing development.

At the balance sheet date, the company's liabilities exceeded its assets by £2,550 and it reported a profit of £6,356. In the opinion of the directors the company has the support of its creditors and financiers for the foreseeable future, and it is therefore considered appropriate to adopt the going concern policy.

This document was delivered using electronic communications and authenticated in accordance with the registrar's rules relating to electronic form, authentication and manner of delivery under section 1072 of the Companies Act 2006.
