Directors Report

The director presents his report and the financial statements for the period ended 31st March 2003

The company was incorporated on 18th April 2002 and started trading on 18th April 2002

Principle Activity

The principle activity of the company is Accountancy.

Directors

The directors of the company in office during the period and their interest in the issued share capital were as follows:

	Ordinary shares of £1 each
D McAdam (appointed 18th April 2002)	100

Directors Responsibilities

Company law requires the director to prepare financial statements for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company and of the profit or loss of the company for that period. In preparing those financial statements, the director is required to;

- * select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- * make judgments and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- * prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the company will continue in business.

The director is responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the company and enable him to ensure the financial statements comply with the companies Act 1985. He is also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

In preparing this report the director has taken advantage of special exemptions applicable to small companies.

The financial statements were approved by the director on

For the year in question, the company was entitled to exemption from an audit under section 249A(1) of the companies Act 1985. No notice has been deposited under section 249B(2) of the Act in relation to the accounts for the financial year.

The director acknowledges his responsibilities for:

- * ensuring that the company keeps accounting records which comply with section 221 of the companies Act 1985;
- * preparing accounts which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company, as at the end of the financial year, and of its profits and loss for the financial year in accordance with the requirements of section 226 of the companies Act 1985, and which otherwise comply with the requirements of that Act relating to accounts, as far as applicable to the company.

Advantage has been taken, in the preparation of the accounts, of special exemptions applicable to small companies on the grounds that, in the directors opinion, the company qualifies as a small company under sections 246 and 247 of the Companies Act 1985.
