New Nature of control

The person holds, directly or indirectly, more than 25% but not more than 50% of the shares in the company.

The person has the right, directly or indirectly, to appoint or remove a majority of the board of directors of the company.

The person has the right to exercise, or actually exercises, significant influence or control over the activities of a firm that, under the law by which it is governed, is not a legal person; and the members of that firm (in their capacity as such) have the right to appoint or remove, directly or indirectly, a majority of the board of directors of the company.
