4	Alternative name
	If at the date of restoration the company could not be registered under its former name without contravening section 66 of the Companies Act 2006 (name not to be the same as another in the Registrar's index of company names), it must be restored to the Register under another name specified. This name is subject to the provisions of section 54 and 55 of the Companies Act 2006 (sensitive words and expressions), section 80 (change of name registration and issue of new certificate of incorporation), and section 81 (change of name effect) as if the application to register were a notice of change of name.  Please enter an alternative name if the former name is unavailable. Please check the company names' index to see if the alternative name is available at www.companieshouse.	Alternative name If the alternative name cannot be registered, the Registrar shall restore the company as if its company number was also its name. The company then has 14 days after the date of restoration to change its name by resolution of the directors. The company must give notice to the Registrar of the change, and sections 80 and 81 apply as regards the registration and effect of the change. It is an offence under section 1033(6) of the Companies Act 2006 if the company name is not changed
Alternative name		within 14 days of the company being restored with the company number as its name
