8 Delivery of instrument

You must deliver the original instrument (if any) creating or evidencing the charge and these prescribed particulars to the Registrar of Companies within 21 days after the date of creation of the charge (section 860). If the property is situated and the charge was created outside the United Kingdom (UK), you must deliver the information to the Registrar within 21 days after the date on which the instrument could have been received in the UK in the normal course of post and assuming you had posted it promptly (section 870).

We will accept a verified copy of the instrument creating the charge where the property charged is situated and the charge was created outside the UK (section 866). The company or the person who has delivered the copy to the Registrar must verify it to be a correct copy and sign it. Where a body corporate gives the verification, an officer of that body must sign it. We will also accept a verified copy where section 867(2) applies (property situated in another part of UK).

of, or in connection with, any proceedings threatened or commenced under the Insolvency Act 1986 or any similar legislation in any jurisdiction.

(xii) the benefit of all agreements for the provision by the Company to any person of any loan or credit or other financial accommodation of any description (including, without limitation, any finance leases and hire or hire-purchase agreements) at the date of the Debenture, or at any time afterwards, entered into by the Company.

(xiii) the proceeds of sale of any property mentioned in Clause 4 of the Debenture

(d) by way of floating charge, all the undertaking of the Company and all its property whatsoever and wheresoever both present and future (excluding any part of the same which is, for the time being, effectively charged by way of legal mortgage or fixed charge by the Debenture and recognised as effectively so charged under the laws of the jurisdiction in which the same is situated)

The property referred to in paragraphs (a) (b) (c) and (d) above is collectively called the "charged property". The property referred to in paragraphs (a) (b) and (c) (together with any property for the time being effectively charged by way of fixed charge by the application of Clause 5 of the Debenture) is collectively called the "fixed charged property"

Pursuant to Clause 5 of the Debenture the Bank may, by notice in writing to the Company, convert the floating charge created by Clause 4(d) of the Debenture into a fixed charge in respect of such of the property of the Company as may be specified in such notice. It may do so,

(1) if on the happening of any of the events mentioned in Clause 11 of the Debenture; or

(11) it appears to the Bank that such property is in danger of seizure, distress, diligence or any other form of legal process or that the same, and/or the security at the date of the Debenture created in respect of it, is otherwise in jeopardy

In either event, the ability of the Company to deal in any way with such property shall cease except to the extent that the Bank may otherwise agree in writing

Pursuant to Clause 12(a) of the Debenture the floating charge is intended to be a qualifying floating charge as defined by paragraph 14 of schedule B1 to the Insolvency Act 1986 (inserted by section 248 of and schedule 16 to the Enterprise Act 2002).

Pursuant to Clause 6 of the Debenture the Company shall not, except with the prior written consent of the Bank -

(a) create, or attempt to create, or allow to subsist over all or any of
