Deferred taxation

Deferred tax is recognised on all timing differences that have originated but not reversed at the balance sheet date. Timing differences are differences between the taxable profits and the results results stated in the financial statements that arise from the inclusion of gains and losses in tax assessments in periods different from those in which they are recognised in the financial statements.

Assets held under hire purchase contracts

Assets held under hire purchase contracts are capitalised and depreciated over their useful lives. The corresponding hire purchase obligation is treated in the balance sheet as a liability. The interest element of instalments is charged to the profit and loss account over the period of the agreement at a constant proportion of the periodic payments.

Rentals applicable to operating leases where substantially all of the benefits and risks of ownership remain with the lessor are charged against profit on a straight line basis over the lease term.
