(xii) all funds standing to the credit of the Company from time to time on any account with the Bank or any other bank or financial institution or organisation including all receipts from time to time paid into an account in accordance with Note 1(c) below provided that the Bank may without prejudice to the charge permit the Company to make withdrawals from time to time.

3 By way of floating charge all the undertaking and all property assets and rights of the Company present and future not subject to a fixed charge under the Debenture.

Note 1 The Debenture contains covenants by the Company with the Bank,-

(a) Not without the previous written consent of the Bank to create or permit to arise any mortgage charge or lien on any of the Company's property except that the property subject to the floating charge may be disposed of in the ordinary course of business

(b) Not without the previous written consent of the Bank to grant or accept a surrender of any lease or licence or part with or share possession or occupation of the Company's freehold and leasehold property or any part of it.

(c) To pay into the Company's account with the Bank (and if more than one then into such account or into such account with another bank) as the Bank may specify from time to time all money which the Company may receive in respect of the Company's book debts and other debts and not to deal with the Company's book debts and other debts otherwise than by collecting them in the ordinary course of the Company's business and in particular not to realise the Company's book debts and other debts by means of block discounting, factoring or the like.

Note 2 The Debenture gives the Bank power to appoint an Administrative Receiver.
