(b) The transfer notice shall specify the number of shares which the proposing transferor wishes to transfer ("the transfer shares") and the price at which the proposing transferor wishes to sell the transfer shares.

(c) The transfer notice shall constitute the directors as the agents of the proposing transferor empowered to sell the transfer shares or any part thereof together with all the rights attaching thereto at the date of the transfer notice or at any time thereafter at the transfer price (as hereinafter defined) on the terms of this regulation.

(d) The transfer shares shall be offered for purchase at the transfer price. The transfer price shall be such price as may be agreed between the proposing transferor and the directors, and in the absence of such agreement within 21 days of the date of the transfer notice, the transfer price shall be determined by the auditors for the time being of the Company or (if the proposing transferor shall so require) by some other chartered accountant to be nominated by the President for the time being of the Institute of Chartered Accountants in England and Wales. In fixing the transfer price, the auditor or chartered accountant as the case may be ("the expert") shall act as an expert and not as an arbitrator and his written determination shall be final and binding on the members.

applicants in proportion (as nearly as may be without involving fractions or selling any member a greater number of transfer shares than the maximum number applied for by him) to the number of shares then held by them respectively. If any of the transfer shares shall not be capable of being allocated as aforesaid without involving fractions, the same shall be offered amongst the acceptors or some of them in such proportions as may be determined by lots drawn in respect thereof and the lots shall be drawn in such manner as the directors may think fit.

(i) Upon determining the allocation of the transfer shares to the applicant members, the directors shall forthwith give notice of such allocation to the members to whom the transfer shares have been allocated and to the proposing transferor. The notice shall specify the time and place (being not less than 14 days and not more than 28 days after the date of the said notice) at which the completion of the sale of the transfer shares so allocated shall take place

(j) The proposing transferor shall be bound upon payment of the purchase price due in respect of thereof to transfer to each member to whom transfer shares have been allocated the relevant number of transfer shares at the time and place specified in the said allocation notice. If the proposing transferor fails to transfer shares which he has become so bound to transfer, the Company may receive the purchase price on his behalf (the receipt of which by the Company shall be good discharge to the member purchasing such shares and shall hold the same on trust for the proposing transferor and the Company may then authorise some person to execute a transfer on his behalf.

(l) The personal representatives of any deceased member shall, if called upon by the directors to do so within 12 months of the death of a deceased member give a transfer notice in respect of all the shares registered in the name of the deceased member at the date of his death. In the event that the personal representatives fail to give such transfer notice within 28 days of being requested by the directors so to do, the personal representatives shall be deemed to have given a transfer notice at the expiration of the said 28 days in respect of all the shares registered in the name of the deceased member at the date of his death and the provisions of Regulations 7(c) to 4(1) hereof shall have effect accordingly.

(m) If any member is adjudicated bankrupt, his trustee in bankruptcy shall within 28 days of the date of such adjudication give a transfer notice in respect of all the shares registered in the name of the bankrupt member at the date of such adjudication. If no such transfer notice is given within the said 28 day period, the trustee in bankruptcy shall be deemed to have given a transfer notice at the expiration of the said 28 days in respect of all the shares registered in the name of the bankrupt member at the date of his adjudication and the provisions of Regulations 7(c) to 4(1) hereof shall have effect accordingly.
