A transfer notice shall only be revocable with the consent of all the members.

(a2) The transfer notice shall constitute the Directors the agents of the proposing transferor for the sale of Shares and the Directors shall, within seven days of the transfer notice being given to the Company, offer the Shares in writing pro rata (as nearly as may be) to the holders of Ordinary Shares. Such offer shall state:

i) the number of shares offered;

(a3) Each member who accepts the offer made under paragraph (a2) of this Article may state in his reply that he accepts the offer price, if any. If any member accepting the offer states in his reply that he does not accept the offer price or makes no reference to the offer price or if no offer price was stated by the proposing transferor, the Directors, forthwith upon all the members to whom the offer is made under such paragraph (a2) above replying or upon the termination (if earlier) of the period of one calendar month referred to in such paragraph (a2) above, shall instruct a firm of accountants agreed by the members (or in default of agreement appointed by the president for the time being of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of England and Wales) ("the Auditors") to certify the fair price of the Shares ("the Price"). The fees and expenses of the Auditors shall be paid by all the members in proportion to the numbers of the Shares which they hold.

(a4) The Price shall be determined by the Auditors, acting as experts and not as arbitrators without making any allowance or adjustment in respect of the percentage of the issued share capital of the Company represented by the Shares on the basis of the fair value of the business of the Company as a going concern at the date on which the Auditors are instructed to determine the Price.

(a5) The proposing transferor shall be bound to transfer to each purchaser of the Shares the number of Shares being purchased by him upon payment by such purchaser to the proposing transferor of the offer price or the Price (as the case may be) which payment

The receipt of the Directors for the purchase money shall be a good discharge to the relevant purchasing member or members and after his or their names have been entered in the Register in purported exercise of the aforesaid power the validity of the proceedings shall not be questioned by any person.

(a7) If the Directors shall not find a member or members willing to purchase all the Shares under the foregoing provisions the proposing transferor shall at any time within ninety days afterwards be at liberty to sell and transfer the Shares or so many of them as the Company shall not have found a purchaser or purchasers for as aforesaid, to the third party named in the transfer notice for a cash price payable prior to transfer and being not less than the offer price (if any) or the Price (if higher) determined in accordance with the foregoing provisions.

(a8) The holders of Ordinary Shares may, if they all think fit, agree in writing to waive the provisions of this Article in any particular case.

b The Directors shall refuse to register any proposed transfer of a share other than a transfer of a share other than a transfer made pursuant to or permitted by paragraphs (a) or (d) of this Article.

All instruments of transfer when registered, shall be retained by the Company.

e No interest in any share or shares shall be disposed of or created by any means without a transfer of an equivalent number of shares being presented for registration save in circumstances where a transfer of the share or shares concerned would be permitted under the provisions of paragraph (a) of this Article without the member giving a transfer notice.
