the notice is not effective unless it is expressed to be given and signed, by all the Holders or persons otherwise entitled to that Share

49. Authority to capitalise and appropriation of Capitalised Sums

- 49 1 Subject to the other provisions of these articles, the Directors may, if they are so authorised by an Ordinary Resolution

 - 49 1 2 appropriate any sum which they decide to capitalise in accordance with Article 49 1 1 (a "Capitalised Sum") to the persons who would have been entitled to it if it were distributed by way of dividend (the "Persons Entitled") and in the same proportions
- 49 2 Capitalised Sums must be applied
 - 49 2 1 on behalf of the Persons Entitled, and
 - 49 2 2 in the same proportions as a dividend would have been distributed to them
- 49 3 Any Capitalised Sum may be applied in paying up new Shares of a nominal amount equal to the Capitalised Sum which are then allotted credited as Fully Paid to the Persons Entitled

- 50 2 A person is able to exercise the right to vote at a general meeting when

50 2 1 he is able to vote, during the meeting, on resolutions put to the vote at the meeting, and

50 2 2 his vote can be taken into account in determining whether or not such resolutions are passed at the same time as the votes of all the other persons attending the meeting

50 3 The Directors may make whatever arrangements they consider appropriate to enable those attending a general meeting to exercise their rights to speak or vote at it.

50 4 In determining attendance at a general meeting, it is immaterial whether any two or more persons attending it are in the same place as each other

50 5 Two or more persons who are not in the same place as each other attend a general meeting if their circumstances are such that if they have (or were to have) rights to speak and vote at that meeting, they are (or would be) able to exercise them

51. Quorum for general meetings

51 1 No business other than the appointment of the Chairman of the Meeting is to be transacted at a general meeting if the persons attending it do not constitute a quorum

51 2 Two Qualifying Persons in attendance at a general meeting are a quorum, unless each is a Qualifying Person only because he is appointed as proxy of a Shareholder in relation to that meeting and they are proxies of the same Shareholder

52. Chairing general meetings

52 1 If the Directors have appointed a Chairman, the Chairman shall chair general meetings if present and willing to do so

52 2 If the Directors have not appointed a Chairman or if the Chairman is unwilling to chair the relevant general meeting or is not present within 10 minutes of the time at which the relevant general meeting was due to start.

54. Adjournment of general meetings

54 1 If the persons attending a general meeting within 30 minutes of the time at which the meeting was due to start do not constitute a quorum or if during a general meeting a quorum ceases to be present, the Chairman of the Meeting must adjourn it.

54 2 The Chairman of the Meeting may adjourn a general meeting at which a quorum is present if

54 2 1 that meeting consents to an adjournment, or

54 2 2 it appears to him that an adjournment is necessary to protect the safety of any person attending that meeting or ensure that the business of that meeting is conducted in an orderly manner

54 3 The Chairman of the Meeting must adjourn a general meeting if directed to do so by that meeting

54 4 When adjourning a general meeting, the Chairman of the Meeting must.

54 4 1 either specify the time and place to which it is adjourned or state that it is to continue at a time and place to be fixed by the Directors, and

54 4 2 have regard to any directions as to the time and place of any adjournment which have been given by that meeting

54 6 No business may be transacted at an adjourned general meeting which could not properly have been transacted at the relevant general meeting if the adjournment had not taken place

55. Voting at general meetings: general

55 1 A resolution put to the vote of a general meeting must be decided on a show of hands unless a poll is duly demanded in accordance with these articles

55 2 On a vote on a resolution on a show of hands at a general meeting every Shareholder (whether present in person or by one or more proxies) has one vote

55 3 On a vote on

55 3 1 a resolution on a poll taken at a general meeting, or

55 3 2 a written resolution,

every Shareholder has one vote in respect of each Share held by him

56. Errors and disputes

56 1 No objection may be raised to the qualification of any person voting at a general meeting except at that meeting or adjourned meeting at which the vote objected to is tendered and every vote not disallowed at that meeting is valid

56 2 Any objection pursuant to Article 56 1 must be referred to the Chairman of the Meeting, whose decision is final

57. Poll votes

57 1 A poll on a resolution may be demanded

57 1 1 in advance of the general meeting where it is to be put to the vote, or

57 1 2 at a general meeting, either before a show of hands on that resolution or immediately after the result of a show of hands on that resolution is declared

57 4 Polls must be taken immediately and in such manner as the Chairman of the Meeting directs

58. Content of Proxy Notices

58 1 Proxies may only validly be appointed by a notice in Writing (a "Proxy Notice") which

58 1 1 states the name and address of the Shareholder appointing the proxy,

58 1 2 identifies the person appointed to be the proxy and the general meeting in relation to which he is appointed,

58 1 3 is signed by or on behalf of the Shareholder appointing the proxy, or is authenticated in such manner as the Directors may determine, and

58 1 4 is delivered to the Company in accordance with these articles and any instructions contained in the notice of the general meeting to which the Proxy Notice relates

58 2 The Company may require Proxy Notices to be delivered in a particular form and may specify different forms for different purposes

58 3 Proxy Notices may specify how the proxy appointed under them is to vote (or that the proxy is to abstain from voting) on one or more resolutions

58 4 Unless a Proxy Notice indicates otherwise, it must be treated as

58 4 1 allowing the person appointed under it as a proxy discretion as to how to vote on any ancillary or procedural resolutions put to the relevant general meeting, and

58 4 2 appointing that person as a proxy in relation to any adjournment of the general meeting to which it relates as well as that general meeting itself

59 4 In the case of a poll not taken during the meeting but taken not more than 48 hours after it was demanded, the Proxy Notice must be delivered

59 4 1 in accordance with Article 59 2, or

59 4 2 at the meeting at which the poll was demanded to the Chairman, company secretary or any Director

59 5 A person who is entitled to attend, speak or vote (either on a show of hands or on a poll) at a general meeting remains so entitled in respect of that meeting or any adjournment of it even though a valid Proxy Notice has been delivered to the Company by or on behalf of that person

59 6 An appointment under a Proxy Notice may be revoked by delivering to the Company a notice in Writing given by or on behalf of the person by whom, or on whose behalf, the Proxy Notice was given to the Proxy Notification Address

59 7 A notice revoking a proxy appointment only takes effect if it is delivered before the start of the general meeting or adjourned general meeting to which it relates

59 8 If a Proxy Notice is not executed by the person appointing the proxy, it must be accompanied by evidence in Writing of the authority of the person who executed it to execute it on the person appointing the proxy's behalf

60. Amendments to resolutions

60 1 An Ordinary Resolution to be proposed at a general meeting may be amended by Ordinary Resolution if

60 1 1 notice of the proposed amendment is given to the Company in Writing by a person entitled to vote at the general meeting at which it is to be proposed not less than 48 hours before that meeting is to take place (or such later time as the Chairman of the Meeting may determine), and

60 1 2 the proposed amendment does not, in the reasonable opinion of the Chairman of the Meeting, materially alter the scope of the resolution

60 2 A Special Resolution to be proposed at a general meeting may be amended by Ordinary Resolution if

60 2 1 the Chairman of the Meeting proposes the amendment at the general meeting at which the resolution is to be proposed, and

60 2 2 the amendment does not go beyond what is necessary to correct a grammatical or other non-substantive error in the resolution

60 3 If the Chairman of the Meeting, acting in good faith, wrongly decides that an amendment to a resolution is out of order, his error does not invalidate the vote on that resolution
