 - a. individuals (over the age of 18 years) who are interested in furthering the work of the Charity and who are not paid or volunteer workers at the bureau; and

4. Every member shall have one vote

If the representative or alternate resigns or otherwise leaves the member organisation, he or she shall immediately cease to be the representative of the member organisation.
7. The Trustee Board can vote, with good reason, to end the membership of any individual or member organisation. The individual or member organisation can appeal against this, by making representations to the Trustee Board (and may be accompanied by one other person for this purpose) before a final decision is made.
8. The Charity shall maintain a Register of Members in which shall be recorded the name and address of every member, and the dates on which they became a member and on which they cease to be a member.
9. The rights and privileges of a member cannot be transferred to anyone else and are given up when the member stops being a member.
10. No person or organisation may be admitted as a member of the Charity unless their application for membership has been approved by the Trustee Board.

General Meetings

Annual General Meeting

11. The Charity shall hold an annual general meeting within 18 months of incorporation and afterwards once in each calendar year. Not more than 15 months shall pass between the date of one annual general meeting and the next. It shall be held at such time and place as the Trustees shall think suitable.

Other General Meetings

12. The Trustees may call a general meeting at any time. The Trustees shall call a general meeting on receiving a requisition to that effect, signed by at least 10% of the members having the right to attend and vote at general meetings. In default, the requisitionists may call a general meeting in accordance with the Act.

Length of Notice

13. Unless Article 14 applies, an annual general meeting and a general meeting called to pass a special resolution or a resolution appointing a person as a Trustee shall be called by at least 21 clear days' written notice and any other general meeting shall be called by at least 14 clear days' written notice.
14. A general meeting may be called by shorter notice if it is so agreed:-
 - a. in the case of an annual general meeting, by all the members entitled to attend and vote at that meeting; and
 - b. in the case of any other general meeting, by a majority of the members having a right to attend and vote at that meeting. Any such majority shall together represent at least 95% of the total voting rights at that meeting of all the members.

Contents of Notice

15. Every notice calling a general meeting shall specify the place, day and time of the meeting and the general nature of the business to be transacted. In the case of an annual general meeting, the notice shall in addition specify the meeting as such. If a special resolution is to be proposed, the notice shall contain a statement to that effect.

Service of Notice

16. Notice of general meetings shall be given to every member and to the Trustees, NACAB and to the auditors of the Charity.

Public Notice

17. Public notice of every annual general meeting shall be given at least seven days before by placing a notice in the Bureau that can be clearly seen or in a prominent place in the local area and by announcing it in the local newspaper.

18. Anyone over the age of 18 who lives or works in the Charity's area of benefit, or who is interested in furthering the work of the Charity may attend the annual general meeting.

Proceedings at General Meetings

19. No business shall be transacted at any meeting unless a quorum is present. Ten persons entitled to vote upon the business to be transacted, each being a member or a duly authorised representative of a corporate member organisation or ten percent of the total membership, whichever is the greater, shall be a quorum.
20. If such a quorum is not present within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting, the meeting shall stand adjourned to the same day in the next week at the same time and place or to such time and place as the Trustees may determine and if at the adjourned meeting a quorum is not present within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting the members present shall be a quorum.
21. A representative from the National Association of Citizens Advice Bureaux shall be invited to attend general meetings of the Charity and shall have the right to speak but not to vote at such meetings.
22. The President, or the Chair of the Trustee Board, in that order, shall be the Chair of an annual general meeting. In their absence, the Vice Chair of the Trustee Board (if any) shall take the Chair, and if none is in attendance the persons present, before any other business is transacted, shall appoint a Chair of the meeting.
23. The Chair of the meeting may, with the consent of a meeting at which a quorum is present (and shall if so directed by the meeting), adjourn the meeting from time to time and from place to place, but no business shall be transacted at an adjourned meeting other than business which might properly have been transacted at the meeting had the adjournment not taken place. When a meeting is adjourned for fourteen days or more, at least seven clear days' notice shall be given specifying the time and place of the adjourned meeting and the general nature of the business to be transacted. Otherwise it shall not be necessary to give any such notice.
24. A resolution put to the vote of a meeting shall be decided on a show of hands unless before or on the declaration of the result of the show of hands a poll is duly demanded. Subject to the provisions of the Act, a poll may be demanded:-
- a. by the Chair; or
 - b. by at least two members having the right to vote at the meeting.
25. Unless a poll is duly demanded a declaration by the Chair that a resolution has been carried or carried unanimously, or by a particular majority, or lost, or not carried by a particular majority and an entry to that effect in the minutes of the meeting shall be conclusive evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against the resolution.

26. The demand for a poll may, before the poll is taken, be withdrawn but only with the consent of the Chair and a demand so withdrawn shall not be taken to have invalidated the result of a show of hands declared before the demand was made.
27. A poll shall be taken as the Chair directs and he or she may appoint scrutineers (who need not be members) and fix a time and place for declaring the result of the poll. The result of the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded.
28. In the case of an equality of votes, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, the Chair shall be entitled to a casting vote in addition to any other vote he or she may have.
29. A poll demanded on the election of the Chair or on a question of adjournment shall be taken forthwith. A poll demanded on any other question shall be taken either forthwith or at such time and place as the Chair directs not being more than thirty days after the poll is demanded. The demand for a poll shall not prevent the continuance of a meeting for the transaction of any business other than the question on which the poll was demanded. If a poll is demanded before the declaration of the result of a show of hands and the demand is duly withdrawn, the meeting shall continue as if the demand had not been made.
30. No notice need be given of a poll not taken forthwith if the time and place at which it is to be taken are announced at the meeting at which it is demanded. In any other case, at least seven clear days' notice shall be given specifying the time and place at which the poll is to be taken.
31. The proceedings at any meeting or on the taking of any poll shall not be invalidated by reason of any accidental informality or irregularity or any want of qualification in any of the persons present or voting.

Votes of members

32. Every member present in person shall have one vote.
33. No member may vote on any matter in which he or she is personally interested, pecuniarily or otherwise, or debate on such a matter without in either case the permission of the majority of the members present in person at the meeting, such permission to be given or withheld without discussion.
34. No objection shall be raised to the qualification of any voter except at the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the vote objected to is tendered, and every vote not disallowed at the meeting shall be valid. Any objection made in due time shall be referred to the Chair whose decision shall be final and binding.

- 35. A vote given or poll demanded by the duly authorised representative of a member organisation shall be valid notwithstanding the previous termination of the authority of the person voting or demanding a poll unless notice of the termination was received by the Charity at the Office before the commencement of the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the vote is given or the poll demanded or (in the case of a poll taken otherwise than on the same day as the meeting or adjourned meeting) the time appointed for taking the poll.

Trustee Board

Trustees

- 36. The first Trustees shall be those persons named in the statement delivered pursuant to section 10(2) of the Act, who shall be deemed to have been elected under these Articles. Future Trustees shall be appointed as provided subsequently in these Articles.

- 37. The maximum number of Trustees shall be twenty five and the minimum shall be four, being either:

a. elected at the annual general meeting, and who shall hold office from the conclusion of that meeting or:-

b. nominated by member organisations

or:-

c. co-opted by the Trustee Board

Providing that the total number of co-opted and nominated Trustees does not exceed one third of the total number of Trustees

- 38. Each appointment of a co-opted or nominated Trustee shall be made at an ordinary meeting of the Trustee Board and shall take effect immediately unless the appointment is to fill a place which has not yet been vacated in which case the appointment shall run from the date when the post becomes vacant.
- 39. All elected Trustees shall retire from office at the third annual general meeting following the annual general meeting at which they were elected (except as defined in article 41) but may be re-elected.
- 40. All nominated or co-opted Trustees shall retire from office at the third annual general meeting following the ordinary meeting of the Trustee Board at which they were appointed but may be re-appointed.

41. At each of the first three annual general meetings following incorporation one third of the originally elected Trustees shall retire in rotation but may be re-elected.
42. At the ordinary meeting of the Trustee Board immediately preceding the annual general meeting, the Trustee Board shall (if applicable):
- review member organisations; and
 - consider
- a. any application for representation on the Trustee Board from any member organisation;
- b. any proposal from a Trustee to offer representation on the Trustee Board to any member organisation.

Any proposal from a Trustee to offer representation to a member organisation can be voted on. If this motion is passed by a majority of at least two-thirds of the Trustees present, the Trustee Board will decide how long the organisation can be represented for (providing the period of representation does not exceed that specified in article 40) and invite it to nominate a representative.

Powers of Trustees

43. Subject to the provisions of the Act, the Memorandum and the Articles, the business of the Charity shall be managed by the Trustees who may exercise all the powers of the Charity. No alteration of the Memorandum or Articles shall invalidate any prior act of the Trustees which would have been valid if that alteration had not been made. The powers given by this Article shall not be limited by any special power given to the Trustees by the Articles and a meeting of Trustees at which a quorum is present may exercise all powers exercisable by the Trustees.
44. The Trustees may, by power of attorney or otherwise, appoint any person to be the agent of the Charity for such purposes and on such conditions as they determine.

Regulations

45. The Trustees shall have power from time to time to make, repeal or alter regulations as to the management of the Charity and its affairs, as to the duties of any officers or employees of the Charity, as to the conduct of business by the Trustees or any committee and as to any of the matters or things within the powers or under the control of the Trustees provided that such regulations shall not be inconsistent with the Memorandum or the Articles.

Delegation of Trustees' Powers

46. The Trustee Board may delegate any of its functions to committees consisting of two or more individuals appointed by it (but at least two members of every committee must be Trustees and all proceedings of committees must be reported promptly to the Trustee Board).

Appointment and Retirement of Trustees

47. No person shall be elected or re-elected as a Trustee at any general meeting unless at least fourteen but not more than thirty-five clear days before the date appointed for the meeting, notice executed by a member qualified to vote at the meeting has been given to the Charity of the intention to propose that person for election or re-election stating the particulars which would, if he or she were so elected or re-elected, be required to be included in the Charity's Register of Trustees together with notice executed by that person of his or her willingness to be elected or re-elected.
48. At least seven but not more than twenty-eight clear days before the date appointed for holding a general meeting notice shall be given to all who are entitled to receive notice of the meeting of any person in respect of whom notice has been duly given to the Charity of the intention to propose him or her at the meeting for election or re-election as a Trustee. The notice shall give the particulars of that person which would, if he or she were so elected or re-elected, be required to be included in the Charity's Register of Trustees.
49. Subject to the above Articles, a Trustee who retires at an annual general meeting may, if willing to act, be re-elected. If he or she is not re-elected, he or she shall retain office until the meeting elects someone in his or her place, or if it does not do so, until the end of the meeting.
50. No person may be appointed as a Trustee:
- a. under the age of 18 years; or
 - b. if he or she is a paid or voluntary worker at the Bureau; or
 - c. in circumstances such that, had he or she already been a Trustee, he or she would have been disqualified from acting under the provisions of Article 53.
51. The Trustees may appoint a person who is willing to act as a co-opted Trustee, provided that the appointment does not cause the number of Trustees to exceed any number fixed by or in accordance with the articles as the maximum number of Trustees.
52. The remaining members of the Trustee Board may appoint a person willing to act to fill a casual vacancy in the office of an elected member of the Trustee Board until the next annual general meeting. A casual vacancy in the office of a representative member may be filled by the organisation that s/he represented (provided that that person is acceptable to the Trustee Board).

Disqualification and Removal of Trustees

- 53. The office of a Trustee shall be vacated if he or she:
- a. is disqualified from acting as a member of the Trustee Board by virtue of Section 72 of the Charities Act 1993 (or any statutory re-enactment or modification of that provision);
 - b. becomes incapable by reason of mental disorder, illness or injury of managing and carrying out her/his own affairs;
 - c. is absent without the permission of the Trustee Board from three consecutive meetings and the Trustee Board resolve that her/his office be vacated;
 - d. notifies to the Trustee Board a wish to resign by giving at least one months notice in writing to the Secretary stating the date on which the resignation is to take effect (but only if at least three members of the Trustee Board will remain in office when the notice of resignation is to take effect);
 - e. ceases to be a member of the Charity.

Expenses of Trustees

- 54. The Trustees may be paid all reasonable travelling, hotel, and other expenses properly incurred by them in connection with their attendance at meetings of Trustees or committees of Trustees or general meetings of the Charity or otherwise in connection with the discharge of their duties.

Officers

- 55. At the first meeting following the Annual General Meeting, the Trustee Board shall elect from its number a Chair and Treasurer and may elect one of its number to be Vice Chair. If the Chair is absent from any meeting, the Vice Chair (if any) shall preside. Otherwise the members present shall, before any other business is done, choose one of their number to preside at the meeting.
- 56. A person shall not hold office as Chair, Vice Chair or Treasurer for more than six consecutive years. After the end of this period, two further years must pass before any former Chair, Vice Chair or Treasurer shall be eligible for re-election to the office previously held.
- 57. The Trustee Board may appoint a President and any such other officers as it may need from time to time. All such positions shall be non-voting and unpaid.

58. The Trustee Board may appoint such other paid officers or staff as it considers necessary. The Trustee Board shall appoint and fix the remuneration of such staff as may be necessary to conduct the business of the bureau. None of the Officers except those specified in articles 73 & 75 shall be paid or voluntary staff who work at the bureau. They will not be Trustees and will have no right to vote at meetings.

Proceedings of Trustees

59. Subject to the provisions of the Articles, the Trustees may regulate their proceedings as they think fit.
60. A representative from the National Association of Citizens Advice Bureaux shall be invited to attend all meetings of the Trustee Board and its sub-committees. Such NACAB representative shall have the right to speak but shall not have the right to vote at meetings.
61. The Bureau's Senior Manager shall be entitled to attend all meetings of the Trustee Board and shall have the right to speak but shall not have the right to vote. The Trustee Board may require any such person to withdraw from the meeting.

63. The Trustee Board shall hold at least four ordinary meetings in each year and may hold such other ordinary meetings as are required. Seven clear days' notice in writing shall be given to all members of the Trustee Board and to NACAB of all ordinary meetings. A special meeting of the Trustee Board may be called at any time by the Chair or by any three members upon seven clear days' notice in writing being given to the other members and to NACAB of the matters to be discussed.
64. The quorum shall be at least one third of the members of the Trustee Board, or 4 members of the Trustee Board, whichever number is greater, for decisions to be made at any Trustee Board meeting.
65. Questions arising at a meeting shall be decided by a majority of votes. In the case of an equality of votes, the Chair shall have a second or casting vote.
66. The continuing Trustees or a sole continuing Trustee may act notwithstanding any vacancies in their number but, if and so long as the number of Trustees is less than the number fixed as a quorum, the Trustees may act for the purpose of increasing the number of Trustees to that number or of summoning a general meeting of the Charity but for no other purpose.

67. All acts done by a meeting of Trustees, or of a committee of Trustees, or by a person acting as a Trustee shall, even if afterwards discovered that there was a defect in the appointment of any Trustee or that any of them were disqualified from holding office, or had vacated office, or were not entitled to vote, be as valid as if every such person had been duly appointed and was qualified and had continued to be a Trustee and had been entitled to vote.
68. A resolution in writing signed by all the Trustees entitled to receive notice of a meeting of Trustees or of a committee of Trustees shall be as valid and effectual as if it had been passed at a meeting of Trustees or (as the case may be) a committee of Trustees duly convened and held and may consist of several documents in the like form each signed by one or more Trustees. The date of a written resolution of the Trustees shall be the date on which the last Trustee signs.

Dear Ms McTaggart,

Barnsley and District Citizens Advice Bureau

Thank you for your letter received in this office on 16th February 2004.

I am pleased to be able to offer the approval of the Charity Commission to the amendments to the Memorandum and Articles of Association of the company.

Please find enclosed 2 copies of the Special Resolution, which have been endorsed to show the precise wording that we have approved. One copy is for the charity's records and one copy is for you to send to the Registrar of Companies at Companies House. We have kept a copy for our records.

Once the resolution has been passed I would then be obliged if you could send me a signed, dated and certified copy together with a copy of the amended Memorandum and Articles of Association for our records.

This letter may be taken as the written consent of the Charity Commission to the amendments for the purposes of section 64 of the Charities Act 1993.

Yours sincerely,

Rachel Ashton
