The application

Warning to all applicants

It is an offence to knowingly or recklessly provide false or misleading information on this application.

You are advised to read section 4 and to consult the guidance available from Companies House before completing this form. If in doubt, seek professional advice.

I/We as director(s)/the majority of directors apply for this company to be struck off the Register and declare that none of the circumstances described in section 1004 or 1005 of the Companies Act 2006 (being circumstances in which the directors would otherwise be prohibited under those sections from making an application) exists in relation to the company.

This form must be signed by the sole director if only 1, by both if there are 2, or by the majority if there are more than 2.

Please read the guidance

on our website
www.companieshouse.gov.uk
or section 1003 or 1004 of the Companies Act 2006 for circumstances under which an application may not be made.

Please note that on dissolution all property and rights etc will be passed to the Crown.

What to do next

Notify all parties

Please ensure that you send copies of this application to all notifiable parties e.g. creditors, employees, shareholders, pension managers or trustees and other directors of the company within 7 days from the day on which the application is made

Please also send copies to anyone who later becomes a notifiable party within 7 days of this taking place. This applies from the day of application and before the day on which the application is finally dealt with or withdrawn. Please check the guidance which contain a full list of those who must be notified. Failure to notify interested parties is an offence. It is advisable to obtain and retain some proof of delivery or posting of copies to notifiable parties

Withdrawal of striking off application by a company

If the company ceases to be eligible for striking off at any time after the application is made, and before the application is finally dealt with, as specified in section 1009 of the Companies Act 2006, then the application must be withdrawn using form DS02 'Withdrawal of striking off application by a company' available from our website www.companieshouse.gov.uk

Warning to all interested parties

This is an important notice and should not be ignored. The company named has applied to the Registrar to be struck off the Register and dissolved. Please note that on dissolution any remaining assets will be passed to the Crown. The Registrar will strike the company off the register unless there is reasonable cause not to do so. Guidance is available on grounds for objection. If in doubt, seek professional advice

Further guidance

Guidance on all aspects of striking off is available from our website at www.companieshouse.gov.uk

1. Introduction
The purpose of this study is to investigate the effects of the proposed system on the performance of the system. The study is divided into two main parts: a theoretical analysis and an experimental evaluation.

2. Theoretical Analysis
The theoretical analysis is based on the principles of the system and the assumptions made in the design. It aims to provide a clear understanding of the system's behavior and the expected results.

3. Experimental Evaluation
The experimental evaluation is designed to test the system's performance under various conditions. It involves the collection of data and the analysis of the results to determine the system's effectiveness.

4. Conclusion
The study concludes that the proposed system is effective in improving the performance of the system. The results of the experimental evaluation support the theoretical analysis and provide a clear indication of the system's capabilities.

5. References
The following references are cited in the study:
[1] Smith, J. (1998). The effects of the proposed system on the performance of the system. Journal of System Management, 48(2), 123-134.

6. Appendix A
The appendix contains the detailed design of the proposed system, including the flowchart and the data structures. It is intended to provide a comprehensive overview of the system's architecture and the implementation details.

7. Appendix B
The appendix contains the results of the experimental evaluation, including the data collected and the analysis of the results. It is intended to provide a clear and concise summary of the system's performance.

8. Appendix C
The appendix contains the source code of the proposed system, including the main program and the subroutines. It is intended to provide a complete and accurate representation of the system's implementation.

9. Appendix D
The appendix contains the user manual for the proposed system, including the installation instructions and the operating procedures. It is intended to provide a clear and concise guide for the user.

10. Appendix E
The appendix contains the test results of the proposed system, including the data collected and the analysis of the results. It is intended to provide a clear and concise summary of the system's performance.

11. Appendix F
The appendix contains the conclusions of the study, including the findings and the recommendations. It is intended to provide a clear and concise summary of the system's performance.

12. Appendix G
The appendix contains the references cited in the study, including the books, articles, and other sources. It is intended to provide a complete and accurate list of the sources used in the study.

13. Appendix H
The appendix contains the index of the study, including the page numbers and the topics. It is intended to provide a clear and concise guide for the reader.

14. Appendix I
The appendix contains the glossary of the study, including the definitions of the terms and the symbols. It is intended to provide a clear and concise guide for the reader.

15. Appendix J
The appendix contains the list of figures and tables, including the page numbers and the titles. It is intended to provide a clear and concise guide for the reader.
