Law applicable to charities in England and Wales requires trustees to prepare financial statements for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the charity's financial activities during that period, and of its financial position at the end of the period. In preparing financial statements giving a true and fair view, the trustees should follow best practice and:
 - select suitable accounting policies and apply them consistently;
 - · make suitable judgments and estimates that are reasonable and prudent,
 - state whether applicable accounting standards and statements of recommended practice have been followed, subject to any departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements:
 - prepare financial statements on the ongoing concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the charity will continue in operation
- 12. Trustees are responsible for keeping accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy the financial position of the charity, and which enable them to ensure that financial statements comply with applicable law and regulations. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charity and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detention of fraud and other irregularities. The Trust's income and expenditure is now below the threshold at which Independent Financial Examination is required.
