DIRECTOR'S RESPONSIBILITIES

Company law requires the director to prepare financial statements for each financial year which give a true and fair view. In preparing those financial statements, the director is required to:

- * select suitable accounting policies and then apply them on a consistent basis, making judgements and estimates that are prudent and reasonable;
- * state whether applicable accounting standards have been followed, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements;
- * prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is not appropriate to presume that the company will continue in business.

The director is responsible for keeping proper accounting records, for safeguarding the assets of the company, and for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

ACCOUNTANTS REPORT TO THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Chartered Accountant's Report to the Board of Directors on the Unaudited Financial Statements of ABL Roofing And Builders Merchant Limited.

In accordance with the engagement letter dated 27 July 2007, and in order to assist you to fulfil your duties under the Companies Act 1985, we have compiled the financial statements of the company, which comprise the Profit and Loss Account, the Balance Sheet, and the related notes, from the accounting records and explanations you have given to us.

This report is made to the Company's Board of Directors, as a body, in accordance with the terms of our engagement. Our work has been undertaken so that we might compile the financial statements that we have been engaged to compile, report to the Company's Board of Directors that we have done so, and state those matters that we have agreed to state to them in this report, and for no other purpose. To the fullest extent permitted by law, we do not accept or assume responsibility to anyone other than the Company and the Company's Board of Directors, as a body, for our work or for this report.

We have carried out this engagement in accordance with technical guidance issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants in England and Wales and have complied with ethical guidance laid down by the Institute relating to members undertaking the compilation of financial statements.

You have acknowledged on the balance sheet for the year ended 31 December 2008 your duty to ensure that the company has kept proper accounting records and to prepare financial statements that give a true and fair view under the Companies Act 1985. You consider that the company is exempt from the statutory requirement for an audit for the year.

We have not been instructed to carry out an audit of the financial statements. For this reason, we have not verified the accuracy or completeness of the accounting records or information and explanations you have given to us and we do not, therefore, express any opinion on the financial statements.
