For the year ended 31 January 2017

Structure

The Foundation is a Company Limited by Guarantee and a Registered Charity. It is governed by Articles and a Memorandum of Association. It is not liable for Corporation Tax on its charitable operations.

Governance

The Foundation is governed by a Board of Trustees. The current Trustees are the Members of the Foundation and are also Directors of the Company for the purposes of company law. The directors who served during the year and up to the date of signing were as follows:

Kate Adie OBE (resigned 2 November 2016)

Graham Binns CBE DSO MC Oliver Westmacott Pierre-Hubert Séguin

Andrew Farquhar (appointed 3 November 2016)

Objects

The Company was incorporated on 28 February 2005 and registered with the Charity Commission on 18 April 2005. The primary objects of the Charity as stated in the Memorandum of Association are to assist in alleviating the suffering that follows conflict either during the final stages of conflict, or during the early stages of post conflict reconstruction.

In planning our activities for the year to meet our charitable objects, the Trustees have complied with their duties in section 17(5) of the Charities Act 2011 and have considered the Charity Commission's general guidance on public benefit.

Achievements and Performance

The Aegis Foundation has continued to support the communities of Iraq and Afghanistan through numerous projects, both in essential support services and social development.

We have continued to develop and increase our partnership network in the countries we remain present. In many cases the projects completed supplement ongoing larger initiatives to support the Iraqi community and encourage continuity and self-sufficiency. The key focus remains to be capacity building, infrastructure, education and youth development. Looking on to 2018 the Aegis Foundation will ensure that we remain proactive in these areas and enforce our community engagement strategy.

Fundraising

The Foundation has continued to concentrate on projects located in Iraq. It has received significant support from various agencies within country and has targeted specific projects which will immediately benefit the local populace. The Foundation seeks guidance from its Board of Trustees in deciding which projects to fund and closely monitors all projects through from inception to completion. The Foundation is not actively fundraising from external sources unless a specific project has been identified. As such, it is not a purpose of the Foundation to hold material cash balances in excess of immediate needs.

Reserves Policy

The charity does not aim to build up reserves for any specific purposes. Income generated will be spent once suitable benefactors are identified. Reserves of the Charity are £21 as at 31 January 2017 (2016: £26,302) and the search for suitable projects is on-going. This policy impacts on the extent of fundraising activities such that they are limited to what is practical to achieve on the ground.

Public Benefit

The trustees have paid close attention to the advice published by the Charity Commission concerning public benefit, and therefore consider that they have fulfilled their obligations under s.17(5), Charities Act 2011.

Their openness to applications from the general public is believed to be consistent with extant case law on public benefit and therefore with the provisions of the aforementioned Act.

Statement of trustees' responsibilities

The trustees (who are also directors of The GardaWorld Foundation for the purposes of company law) are responsible for preparing the Trustees' Report and the financial statements in accordance with applicable law and United Kingdom Accounting Standards (United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice).

Company law requires the trustees to prepare financial statements for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the charitable company and of the incoming resources and application of resources, including the income and expenditure, of the charitable company for that period. In preparing these financial statements, the trustees are required to:

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- observe the methods and principles in the Charities SORP;
- make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- state whether applicable accounting standards have been followed, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements;
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the charity will continue in business.

The trustees are responsible for keeping proper accounting records that disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charitable company and enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 2006. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charitable company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

The trustees are responsible for the maintenance and integrity of the corporate and financial information included on the charitable company's website. Legislation in the United Kingdom governing the preparation and dissemination of financial statements may differ from legislation in other jurisdictions.

This report has been prepared in accordance with the special provisions of Part 15 of the Companies Act 2006 applicable to smaller companies.
