The company continues to provide education and tuition to support its objectives, no charitable payments being made.

Charity and company law requires the Directors to prepare the accounts for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of the company's affairs and of its financial activities for that year. In preparing those accounts the Directors are required to:

- (a) select suitable accounting policies and apply them consistently;
- (b) make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- (c) state whether applicable accounting standards and statements of recommended practice have been followed subject to any departures disclosed and explained in the accounts; and
- (d) prepare the accounts on a going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to assume that the company will continue in business.

The Directors are responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the company.

The Directors are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the company and for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud or other irregularities.

There are no major risks identified by the Directors. Risk assessments are performed regularly.

The 2008 accounts of the company have been prepared by B A James & Co of Birmingham whose report is attached.

The Directors are satisfied that the assets are sufficient to fulfil the obligations of the company.
