STATEMENT OF THE DIRECTORS' RESPONSIBILITIES

Company law requires the Director to prepare financial statements for each financial period which give a true and fair view of the state of the company and of the profit or loss of the company for that period. In preparing those financial statements, the director is required to -

- select suitable accounting policies and apply them consistently,
- make reasonable and prudent judgments and estimates,
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is not appropriate to presume that the company will continue in business

The Director is responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the company and to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Acts. She is also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.
