1. Covenant to Pay

- 1.1 The Company covenants with the Bank to pay and discharge the Secured Liabilities on demand to the Bank or as the Bank may direct:
 - 1.1.1 on the due date for payment or performance of the Secured Liabilities concerned as provided by the terms of any agreement or document constituting the same; and
 - 1.1.2 in the absence of any express provision for payment and performance of the Secured Liabilities concerned on written demand by the Bank;
- 1.2 The Company agrees that if it fails to pay any part of the Secured Liabilities when due then such amount will bear interest (after as well as before judgement and payable on demand) at 6% over the Bank of England Base Rate as it may vary from time to time from the due date until paid in full;
- 1.3 The Company agrees with the Bank that a certificate signed by or on behalf of the Bank as to the amount, calculation or nature of the Secured Liabilities or any part of them will, in the absence of manifest error, be conclusive and binding on the Company.

2. The Charge

- 2.1 The Company as security for the due and punctual payment and performance of the Secured Liabilities and with full title guarantee hereby charges to the Bank:
 - 2.1.1 by way of legal mortgage the Property (with the intent that the security hereby constituted shall extend to and include the Company's full title interest in the Property or in the proceeds of sale thereof), together with all buildings and fixtures (including trade and tenant's fixtures) which are at any time on or attached to the Property. The Company is solely and beneficially interested in the Property;
 - 2.1.2 by way of assignment all rental and other money payable under any lease, licence or other interest created in respect of the Property;
 - 2.1.3 by way of fixed charge all plant, machinery and other items legally and beneficially owned by the Company, whether now or in the future;
 - 2.1.4 by way of fixed charge all rights and interest in and claims under all insurance contracts or policies now or in the future held and affecting the Property (including all money payable under them);
 - 2.1.5 by way of fixed charge any goodwill relating to the Property or the business or undertaking conducted at the Property;
 - 2.1.6 by way of fixed charge the entitlement of the Company (by virtue of an estate or interest in the Property) to any share or shares in any company connected with the Property when issued and all rights, benefits and advantages at any time arising in respect of the shares and the Company shall (if the Bank so requires) transfer such shares to the Bank or as the Bank shall direct and shall deposit certificates relating to the shares with the Bank; and
 - 2.1.7 by way of floating charge all moveable plant, machinery, furniture, furnishings, tools, equipment and other goods now or at any time after

3. Company's Covenants

The Company hereby covenants with the Bank that the Company will:

- 3.1 punctually pay or cause to be paid all rents, rates, taxes, assessments, levies, impositions and outgoings however imposed upon or payable in respect of the Property or its use as and when the same shall become payable;
- 3.2 keep all buildings, roads, pipes, wires, cables, drains, structures, plant, machinery and all fixtures and fittings and all other property now or for the time being in or upon the Property or used for the benefit of the Property in good and substantial repair and proper working order and replace the same when necessary, provided that the Bank may (but without being under any duty to do so) itself repair the Property and may for that purpose enter upon the Property without being deemed to have gone into possession thereof and the Company shall be liable to the Bank for the expenses of the Bank in effecting repairs;
- 3.3 in respect of insurance in connection with the Property:
 - 3.3.1 at the expense of the Company, insure and keep insured the Property with insurers acceptable to the Bank against such risks and in such amounts and otherwise upon such terms as the Bank may require and failing such requirement, insured to the full reinstatement value thereof (including the cost of demolition and site clearance, architects, surveyors and other professional fees and value added tax and where the Property is let, an amount equal to the loss of rent under the lease for three years or such longer period as the Bank may require) against fire and all other risks against which similar property is from time to time normally insured or as the Bank may require and so that if the Company fails to insure in accordance with this covenant, the Bank may (without being obliged so to do) itself insure and keep insured the Property and the Company shall be liable to the Bank for the expenses of the Bank in effecting such insurance;
 - 3.3.2 at the option of the Bank procure that either (i) the interest of the Bank is noted upon all policies of such insurance unless the Bank agrees otherwise in writing or (ii) all policies of insurance are taken out in the joint names of the Bank and the Company and in either case the Company will ensure that such policies of insurance shall contain such provisions for the protection of the Bank as the Bank may from time to time reasonably require and the Company will punctually pay all premiums and other monies necessary for effecting and keeping on risk such insurance on the same becoming due and (if the Bank so requires) will produce to or deposit with the Bank all such policies and receipts for all premiums and other payments necessary for effecting and keeping up such policies;
 - 3.3.3 not do or permit any act or commit any default by which the policy of insurance may become void or voidable or by which the Bank may be prevented from receiving all monies payable under the policy and will not without the previous written consent of the Bank effect any other insurance on the Property;
 - 3.3.4 subject to the terms of any lease affecting the Property, ensure that all sums at any time payable under any of such policies of insurance shall be paid to the Bank (and if the same be not paid directly to the Bank by the insurers but paid to the Company then the Company shall be trustee of the same for the benefit of the Bank and shall account to the Bank accordingly) and shall (subject to any rights arising before the date of this Legal Charge in favour of any third party) at the option of the Bank be applied in making good the loss or damage for which such monies are received or in or towards discharge or reduction of any of the Secured Liabilities;

- 3.4 in relation to obligations affecting the Property:
 - 3.4.1 observe and perform or (as the case may be) enforce the observance and performance of all regulations, covenants, stipulations and provisions affecting the Property or the user of the Property;
 - 3.4.2 if the Bank so requires, produce to the Bank evidence sufficient to satisfy the Bank that all such regulations, covenants, stipulations and provisions have been observed and performed and keep the Bank indemnified against any breach, non-observance or non-performance of the same or any of them and against all resulting liabilities and expenses;
- 3.5 in relation to any leases affecting the Property or any part:
 - 3.5.1 notify the Bank if any tenant (under any lease in respect of which the Company is obliged as landlord and which is binding on the Bank and to which the Property may from time to time be subject) fails to pay any rent, service charge or amount payable in respect of failure to comply with a tenant covenant, and if the Bank so requires, to give notice of such failure by such tenant to any former tenant or guarantor in respect of any such lease;
 - 3.5.2 not, without the prior consent in writing of the Bank, claim or accept settlement of any arrears of rent, service charge or amount payable in respect of failure to comply with a tenant covenant, from a former tenant or guarantor in respect of any lease under which the Company is obliged as landlord and which is binding on the Bank and to which the Property may from time to time be subject;
- 3.6 obtain and comply with all licences, permissions and consents required or imposed by any laws which now or may hereafter affect the Property or its use;
- 3.7 not without the prior consent in writing of the Bank, create or allow to subsist any Encumbrance (other than a Permitted Encumbrance). In the event that the Company creates any Encumbrance in breach of this prohibition, this Legal Charge shall rank in priority to that Encumbrance;
- 3.8 not without the prior written consent of the Bank, pull down or remove the whole or any part of any buildings forming part of the Property or sever, unfix or remove any of the fixtures attaching to them nor (except for the purpose of effecting necessary repairs or of replacing any of them with new or improved models or substitutes) remove any of the plant and machinery belonging to or used by the Company and the Company shall whenever any of that plant and machinery is destroyed, damaged or deteriorates immediately reinstate the same;
- 3.9 carry on trade or business on such part (if any) of the Property as is now or may hereafter be used for the purposes of trade or business in accordance with the standards of good management from time to time current in such trade or business;
- 3.10 within seven days of becoming aware of any notice, order, direction, designation, resolution or proposal having specific application to the Property or its location

given or made by any planning authority, other public body or authority whatsoever to give full particulars to the Bank and (if the Bank so requires) immediately and at the cost of the Company, take all reasonable and necessary steps to comply with any such notice, order, direction, designation or resolution and make or join with the Bank at the expense of the Company in making such objections or representations in respect of any such proposal as the Bank may require;

- 3.11 not without the prior written consent of the Bank, grant or agree to grant or vary any licence or tenancy affecting all or any part of the Property, nor exercise the powers of leasing or agreeing to lease or of accepting or agreeing to accept surrenders conferred by Sections 99 or 100 of the Law of Property Act 1925, nor in any other way dispose of or agree to dispose of or create any legal or equitable estate or interest in or in the proceeds of sale of the Property or any part, nor part with possession or share occupation of the Property or any part;
- 3.12 not without the prior written consent of the Bank (such consent not to be unreasonably withheld), conclude any negotiations for the review of the rent under or for the renewal under Part II of the Landlord and Tenant Act 1954 (as amended) of any lease or tenancy under which the Property is held, or any lease or tenancy binding on the Bank to which the Property may from time to time be subject;
- 3.13 not without the prior written consent of the Bank:
 - 3.13.1 carry out or allow to be carried out on the Property any development as defined in the Town and Country Planning Act 1990; or
 - 3.13.2 change or allow to be changed the use of the Property; or
 - 3.13.3 make, cause or permit to be made or caused any alteration in or addition to the Property which may adversely affect its value;
- 3.14 procure that no person shall become entitled to assert any proprietary or other like right or interest over the Property without the prior written consent of the Bank;
- 3.15 permit the Bank and any persons authorised by the Bank full access to the Property at reasonable times for all purposes connected with this Legal Charge and for the purposes of carrying out a valuation, survey and/or inspection of the Property;
- 3.16 in relation to environmental matters:
 - 3.16.1 not do or omit to do anything, or permit anything to be done or omitted, on, at, under, over, from or to the Property or any part of it which could lead to the Company incurring any costs or liabilities or committing any offence under any environmental law;
 - 3.16.2 indemnify the Bank and its officers, employees and agents against all costs, liabilities and expenses which may be suffered or incurred by it arising out of or in connection with any such act, omission, or permission, any actual or threatened breach of environmental law or the presence of any hazardous substances on, at, under, over, or migrating to or from the Property;
 - 3.16.3 ensure that it complies in all material respects with the terms of all environmental laws and will notify the Bank immediately upon becoming aware of any environmental issues which may have a prejudicial effect on the value of the Property and immediately following receipt of any notices, or upon becoming aware of any actual or threatened claims in connection with any environmental matters directly or indirectly associated with the Property;

- 3.17 if and to the extent that this Legal Charge shall rank after any prior charge, punctually pay all sums due and will comply with the obligations and covenants on the part of the Company under such prior charge and will not without the prior written consent of the Bank, increase or seek to increase any priority of a principal sum owing under such prior charge;
- 3.18 if the Property is leasehold, immediately upon the acquisition of any extended lease or the freehold of the Property (or an interest in the freehold of the Property), in each case, whether under the Leasehold Reform Act 1967, the Landlord and Tenant Act 1987, the Leasehold Reform Housing and Urban Development Act 1993 (as amended by the Commonhold and Leasehold Reform Act 2002) or the Commonhold and Leasehold Reform Act 2002 or any other legislation:
- 3.18.1 deliver such an extension to the lease or the title deeds to the freehold or the documents evidencing such interest to the Bank; and
- 3.18.2 if required by the Bank execute at the Company's cost a legal charge in favour of the Bank in such form as the Bank may require.

4. Declarations and Undertakings

- 4.1 If the Company for any reason fails to observe or punctually to perform any of its obligations owed to the Bank, the Bank shall have power on behalf of the Company to perform the obligation and to take any steps which the Bank may in its absolute discretion consider appropriate to remedy the failure, but the Bank shall not be under any obligation to do so and the exercise of that power or the failure to exercise it shall in no circumstances prejudice any other right of the Bank under this Legal Charge.
- 4.2 For the purposes of Section 101 of the Law of Property Act 1925 (Powers incident to estate or interest of mortgagee) the Secured Liabilities shall be deemed to have become due upon demand.
- 4.3 Section 93 (Consolidation) and 103 (Regulation of exercise of power of sale) of the Law of Property Act 1925 shall not apply to this Legal Charge and the statutory powers of sale and of appointing a Receiver (as hereby extended) shall be exercisable at any time after demand.
- 4.4 At any time after the Bank has demanded payment or discharge of the Secured Liabilities or if otherwise requested by the Company, the Bank may exercise all or any of the powers conferred on mortgagees by the Law of Property Act 1925 as varied or extended by this Legal Charge and all the powers, authorities and discretions conferred on the Receiver by this Legal Charge.
- 4.5 Nothing done by or on behalf of the Bank or a Receiver appointed by it shall render it or him liable to account as a mortgagee in possession for any sums other than actual receipts.
- 4.6 The Company shall execute and perform all such deeds, assurances and matters as the Bank may reasonably require for perfecting the security intended to be created by this Legal Charge and for facilitating the realisation of the Property, and the exercise by the Bank or the Receiver of the powers, authorities and discretions conferred on them whether by or under the Law of Property Act 1925 or this Legal Charge and in particular shall execute all transfers, conveyances, assignments and assurances and shall give all notices, orders and directions which the Bank may think expedient and for the purposes of this sub-clause, a certificate in writing signed under the hand of any officer of the Bank to the effect that any particular assurance or matter required by it is expedient shall be conclusive evidence of the fact.

- 4.7 At any time after this Legal Charge becomes enforceable, the Bank may redeem any prior Encumbrance in respect of the Property, or procure the transfer of it to itself and may settle the accounts of the prior encumbrancer and any accounts so settled will be, in the absence of manifest error, conclusive and binding on the Company. All money paid by the Bank to the encumbrancer in accordance with such accounts shall form part of the Secured Liabilities and shall bear interest at 6% over the Bank of England Base Rate as it may vary from time to time from the date the same are incurred, computed and compounded monthly.
- 4.8 The Bank shall at any time during the continuance of this Legal Charge, be entitled to obtain valuations of the Property at the expense of the Company and if any of these reveal in the Bank's opinion a decrease in the market value of the Property material to the Bank's interest, the Bank shall be entitled to require the Company to provide further security or to repay to the Bank such an amount as the Bank may reasonably require.
- 4.9 A certificate of any officer of the Bank as to the amount for the time being due by the Company to the Bank shall in the absence of manifest error be conclusive for all purposes against the Company.

5. Enforcement

The Bank shall cease to be under any further commitment to the Company and the Secured Liabilities not otherwise payable on demand shall become payable on demand in the following events:

- 5.1 if any of the Secured Liabilities are not paid or discharged when due; or
- 5.2 if the Company is in breach of any of the obligations binding on the Company under this Legal Charge (other than the obligation to pay or discharge when due any of the Secured Liabilities) and such breach (if capable of remedy) has not been remedied to the satisfaction of the Bank before the expiry of seven days after notice calling upon the Company to do so has been given by the Bank; or
- 5.3 if any corporate action, legal proceedings or other procedure or step is taken in relation to:
- 5.3.1 the suspension of payments, a moratorium of any indebtedness, winding-up, dissolution, administration or reorganisation (by way of voluntary arrangement, scheme of arrangement or otherwise) of the Company; or
 - 5.3.2 a composition, compromise, assignment or arrangement with any creditor of the Company; or
 - 5.3.3 the appointment of a liquidator, receiver, administrative receiver, administrator, compulsory manager or other similar officer in respect of any subsidiary or holding company of the Company (if any) or any of their respective assets; or
 - 5.3.4 the enforcement of any security over any assets of the Company or any expropriation, attachment, sequestration, execution or distress of any assets of the Company; or
 - 5.3.5 the Company becoming insolvent or unable to pay its debts within the meaning of Section 123 of the Insolvency Act 1986;
- or any analogous procedure or step is taken in any jurisdiction; or

1. The first part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions and activities. It emphasizes that proper record-keeping is essential for transparency and accountability, particularly in financial matters. The text suggests that organizations should implement robust systems to track and document every aspect of their operations, from procurement to sales.

2. The second part of the document addresses the challenges associated with data management and security. It highlights the need for organizations to protect their sensitive information from unauthorized access and breaches. The text recommends the use of secure storage solutions and the implementation of strict access controls to ensure that data remains confidential and intact.

3. The third part of the document focuses on the importance of regular audits and reviews. It states that periodic audits are necessary to identify any discrepancies or irregularities in the records. The text suggests that organizations should conduct both internal and external audits to ensure that their records are accurate and compliant with relevant regulations and standards.

4. The fourth part of the document discusses the role of technology in improving record-keeping and data management. It mentions that the use of digital tools and software can significantly enhance the efficiency and accuracy of record-keeping processes. The text suggests that organizations should invest in modern technology solutions to streamline their operations and reduce the risk of human error.

5. The fifth part of the document emphasizes the importance of training and education for staff members. It states that all employees involved in record-keeping and data management should receive appropriate training to ensure they are equipped with the necessary skills and knowledge. The text suggests that organizations should provide ongoing training and development opportunities to keep their staff up-to-date with the latest practices and technologies.

6. The sixth part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining a clear and concise record-keeping policy. It states that a well-defined policy is essential for ensuring that all staff members understand their responsibilities and the standards required for accurate record-keeping. The text suggests that organizations should develop a comprehensive policy that covers all aspects of record-keeping and data management, and that it should be regularly reviewed and updated as needed.

7. The seventh part of the document focuses on the importance of maintaining a secure and reliable infrastructure for record-keeping and data management. It states that organizations should ensure that their systems and networks are secure and resilient to prevent any potential data loss or corruption. The text suggests that organizations should implement robust backup and recovery procedures to ensure that their records are always available and intact.

8. The eighth part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining a clear and concise record-keeping policy. It states that a well-defined policy is essential for ensuring that all staff members understand their responsibilities and the standards required for accurate record-keeping. - 5.4 if any statement, representation, or warranty made by or on behalf of the Company to the Bank proves to be or becomes incorrect in any respect which the Bank considers material; or
- 5.5 if any other obligation of the Company present or future in respect of indebtedness is not met in full on the due date, or within any period of grace permitted for payment, or becomes prematurely repayable following a default by the Company, or any security given by the Company becomes enforceable as a result of such default; or
- 5.6 if the Company sells, transfers or otherwise disposes of, whether by a single transaction or a number of transactions, the whole or any part of the Property without the Bank's prior written consent; or
- 5.7 if in the opinion of the Bank there is at any time a change of voting control which the Bank considers material or if any person or group of connected persons should acquire control (as defined in Section 840 of the Income and Corporation Taxes Act 1988) of the Company; or
- 5.8 if any of the foregoing events occurs in relation to:
 - 5.8.1 any third party which now or in the future guarantees or provides security for or gives indemnity in respect of the Secured Liabilities; or
 - 5.8.2 any subsidiary or holding company of the Company or of any such third party or of any subsidiary of any such holding company of any such third party.

These events of default shall not prejudice any events of default contained in any other agreement, letter, charge or other arrangement between the Company and the Bank.

6. Receiver

- 6.1 At any time after it has demanded payment in respect of the Secured Liabilities, or if a petition is presented applying for an administration order to be made in respect of the Company or any third party who may have provided security for or otherwise guaranteed the Secured Liabilities, or it is requested to do so by the Company, the Bank may appoint in writing one or more persons to be the Receiver of the Property (whether or not the Property is then producing income and so that any joint Receiver may exercise any power independently of any other joint Receiver).
- 6.2 The Bank may remove the Receiver so appointed and appoint another in his place and the Bank may also appoint another Receiver if the Receiver resigns.
- 6.3 The Receiver shall be the agent of the Company and the Company alone shall be responsible for his acts and defaults and liable on any contracts or engagements made or entered into by him and the Bank shall in no way be responsible for his misconduct, negligence or default.
- 6.4 The remuneration of the Receiver will be fixed by the Bank, but shall be payable by the Company alone (without prejudice to clause 6.6) and the amount of such remuneration may be debited by the Bank to any account of the Company, but shall in any event form part of the Secured Liabilities and accordingly shall be secured on the Property.
- 6.5 The Receiver shall have full power at his absolute discretion:
 - 6.5.1 to take possession of the Property and collect all rents and other income whether accrued before or after the date of his appointment;

- 6.5.15 to exercise any powers not herein before specifically mentioned which are conferred on a receiver by the Law of Property Act 1925 or on an administrative receiver by the Insolvency Act 1986, such powers to be deemed for the purposes of this Legal Charge as being applicable to the Company and to the Property; and

- 6.5.16 to do all other acts and things which may be considered to be incidental or conducive to any of the matters or powers aforesaid which he lawfully may or can do and to use the name of the Company for all purposes aforesaid and in proceedings arising therefrom;

PROVIDED THAT the Receiver shall not be authorised to exercise any of the aforesaid powers insofar and so long as the Bank shall in writing exclude the same within or at the time of his appointment or subsequently.

- 6.6 The provisions of Section 109(6) and (8) (Remuneration of receiver and application of monies received) of the Law of Property Act 1925 shall not apply and the net proceeds arising from the exercise of the powers of the Receiver shall (unless otherwise agreed between the Bank and the Receiver and subject to any claims ranking in priority to the Secured Liabilities) be applied in or towards discharging in the following order of priority:

- 6.6.1 the amount of all rents, taxes, rates and outgoings whatever affecting the Property;
- 6.6.2 the remuneration of the Receiver and all costs, charges and expenses incurred by him;
- 6.6.3 all other Secured Liabilities in such order as the Bank may determine; and any surplus shall be paid to the person entitled to receive it.

- 6.7 The Company agrees to indemnify and hold harmless the Receiver and any party for whose debt, default or miscarriage he may be answerable from and against all actions, claims, expenses, demands and liabilities, or for anything done or omitted to be done in the exercise or purported exercise of his powers, under or pursuant to the provisions of this Legal Charge.

7. Continuing Security

The security constituted by this Legal Charge shall be a continuing security and shall remain in full force and effect until total and irrevocable satisfaction of all the Secured Liabilities.

8. Bank's Right to Perform Company's Obligations

- 8.1 If the Company fails to perform any obligations imposed upon it by this Legal Charge, the Bank may, but is not obliged to, take such steps as in its opinion may be required to remedy such failure, including making any payment and for that purpose, the Bank and its agents may enter the Property without being deemed to have entered into possession of the Property.
- 8.2 The Company shall indemnify the Bank from and against any sums expended by the Bank pursuant to clause 8.1.
- 8.3 All amounts payable under clause 8.2 shall bear interest at 6% over the Bank of England Base Rate as it may vary from time to time from the date the same are incurred, computed and compounded monthly.

9. The Bank's Right of Set-Off and Debit Accounts

It is hereby agreed and declared that in addition to any right of set-off or other similar right to which the Bank may be entitled, the Bank may at any time and without notice to the Company combine and consolidate all or any of the accounts between the Company and the Bank and/or set-off any monies whatsoever and whether on current account or deposit account and whether in sterling or in any other currency which the Bank may at any time hold for the account of the Company against any liabilities whatsoever and whether in sterling or in any other currency and whether such liabilities are or may be joint or several, actual or contingent and whether owed as principal or surety and for the purposes of this clause, the Bank may effect any necessary currency conversions in accordance with clause 21.

10. Information Disclosure

The Company authorises the Bank to disclose information about the Company, this Legal Charge, the Property and the Secured Liabilities to:

- 10.1 any party to whom the Bank has assigned or transferred, or intends to assign or transfer its rights under this Legal Charge;
- 10.2 any other person if required by law to do so;
- 10.3 any member of the Bank's Group; or
- 10.4 the Bank's auditors, advisors, applicable regulatory authorities, rating agencies and investors.

11. Preservation of Rights

This Legal Charge, the security constituted by this Legal Charge and the rights, powers, remedies and discretions conferred by this Legal Charge shall not be discharged, impaired or otherwise affected by:

- 11.1 any legal limitation, disability, incapacity or other similar circumstance relating to the Company;
- 11.2 any act or omission or other circumstances which but for this provision might operate to release the Company from its obligations in respect of the Secured Liabilities, in whole or in part.

12. Rights Under This Legal Charge

This Legal Charge, the security constituted by this Legal Charge and the rights, powers, remedies and discretions conferred by this Legal Charge:

- 12.1 shall be in addition to and independent of and shall not in any way prejudice or be prejudiced by any collateral or other security, right, remedy or power whether at law or otherwise which the Bank may now or at any time after the date of this Legal Charge have or hold for all or any part of the Secured Liabilities or by any such collateral or other security, right, remedy or power becoming wholly or in part void or voidable or unenforceable or by the failure to perfect or enforce any such collateral or other security, right, remedy or power; and
- 12.2 may be enforced or exercised without the Bank first having taken action or obtained decree against the Company, filed any claim to rank in the insolvency of the Company or having enforced or sought to enforce any other collateral, security, right, remedy or power whether at law or otherwise.

13. Registered Land

- 13.1 If the Property or any part consists of registered land, the Company applies for the registration in the proprietorship register of the Property at the Land Registry of a restriction in the following terms:

"No disposition of the registered estate by the proprietor of the registered estate [or by the proprietor of any registered charge, not being a charge registered before the entry of this restriction,] is to be registered without a written consent signed by the proprietor for the time being of the charge dated [date] in favour of Clydesdale Bank PLC referred to in the charges register".

- 13.2 The Company will procure that no person shall be registered under the Land Registration Act 2002 as proprietor of the Property without the prior written consent of the Bank and the Company shall be liable for the costs incurred by the Bank in lodging from time to time unilateral notices or cautions against the first registration of the title to all or any of the Property.

14. Notice of Subsequent Encumbrances

If the Bank receives or is deemed to have received notice of any subsequent Encumbrance or other interest affecting any part of the Property, the Bank may open a new account or accounts for the Company in its books and if the Bank does not do so then, unless the Bank gives express written notice to the contrary to the Company as from the time of receipt or deemed receipt of such notice by the Bank all payments made by the Company to the Bank shall notwithstanding any appropriation by the Company to the contrary be treated as having been credited to a new account of the Company and not as having been applied in reduction of the Secured Liabilities.

15. Suspense Accounts

All monies received by the Bank under this Legal Charge may at the discretion of the Bank be credited to a suspense account and may be held in such account for so long as the Bank shall think fit without any obligation to apply all or any part of such monies in or towards payment or performance of the Secured Liabilities.

16. Discharge and Avoidance of Payments

Any settlement or discharge between the Company and the Bank shall be conditional upon no security or payment granted or made to the Bank by the Company or any other person being avoided or reduced by virtue of any provision or enactment relating to administration, bankruptcy, insolvency or liquidation for the time being in force and accordingly (but without prejudice to any other rights of the Bank) the Bank shall be entitled to recover from the Company the value or amount of such security or payment from the Company or to enforce this Legal Charge to the full extent of the Secured Liabilities as if such settlement or discharge had not occurred.

17. Remedies, Waivers and Consents

- 17.1 No failure or delay by the Bank in exercising any right, remedy or power under this Legal Charge shall operate as a waiver and no single or partial exercise shall prevent further exercise of any right, remedy or power.
- 17.2 Any waiver and any consent by the Bank under this Legal Charge must be in writing to be effective and may be given subject to such conditions as the Bank thinks fit.

18. Partial Invalidity

- 18.1 Each provision of this Legal Charge will be valid and enforceable to the fullest extent permitted by law.
- 18.2 If any provision of this Legal Charge shall to any extent be invalid or unenforceable, the validity and enforceability of any remaining provisions of this Legal Charge will not in any way be affected. Any invalid and unenforceable

1. The first part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions and activities. It emphasizes that proper record-keeping is essential for transparency and accountability, particularly in financial matters. The text suggests that organizations should implement robust systems to track and document every aspect of their operations, from procurement to sales.

2. The second part of the document addresses the challenges associated with data management and security. It highlights the need for organizations to protect their sensitive information from unauthorized access and breaches. The text recommends the use of secure storage solutions and the implementation of strict access controls to ensure that data remains confidential and intact.

3. The third part of the document focuses on the importance of regular audits and reviews. It states that periodic audits are necessary to identify any discrepancies or errors in the records and to ensure that the organization is complying with relevant regulations and standards. The text suggests that audits should be conducted by independent parties to maintain objectivity and integrity.

4. The fourth part of the document discusses the role of technology in improving record-keeping and data management. It mentions that modern software solutions can significantly reduce the risk of human error and streamline the process of data collection and analysis. The text encourages organizations to invest in reliable technology and to provide training for their staff to ensure they are proficient in using the tools.
