Unless permitted by Articles 29(2) or 29(3) the Board Member concerned may not vote on the matter in question, but no decision of the Board or any committee of the Board shall be invalidated by the subsequent discovery of an interest which should have been declared.
- (2) Provided the interest has been properly disclosed pursuant to Article 29(1) a Board Member may remain present during the discussion and may vote on the matter under discussion where the interest arises because:
- (a) the Board Member is a Tenant or a Leaseholder, so long as the matter in question affects all or a substantial group of Tenants or Leaseholders; or
 - (b) the Board Member is a director or other officer of a company or body which is a parent, subsidiary or associate of the Organisation; or
 - (c) the Board Member is an official or elected member of any statutory body.

30. If a question arises at a meeting of the Board or of a committee of the Board as to the right of a Board Member to vote, the question may, before the conclusion of the meeting, be referred to the chairman of the meeting and his ruling in relation to any Board Member other than himself shall be final and conclusive.

31. The Chairman shall hold office until the end of such term, or until the Chairman resigns or ceases to be a Board Member or is removed as Chairman by the Board.
- (2) Unless he is unwilling to do so, the Board Member so appointed shall preside at every meeting of the Board at which he is present. But if there is no Board Member holding that office, or if the Board Member holding it is unwilling to preside or is not present within five minutes after the time appointed for the meeting, the Board Members present may appoint one of their number to be chairman of the meeting.
- (3) The Board may appoint a vice or deputy chairman to act in the absence of the Chairman on such terms as the Board shall think fit.
32. All acts done by a meeting of the Board, or of a committee of the Board or by a person acting as a Board Member shall, notwithstanding that it be afterwards discovered that there was a defect in the appointment of any Board Member or that any of them were disqualified from holding office, or had vacated office, or were not entitled to vote, be as valid as if every such person had been duly appointed and was qualified and had continued to be a Board Member and had been entitled to vote.

WRITTEN RESOLUTION

33. A resolution in writing signed by:
