These procedures are periodically reviewed to ensure that they continue to meet the needs of the charity.

OBJECTIVES AND ACTIVITIES

Objectives and aims

Sir William Beveridge Foundation (SWBF) is an international charity that seeks to promote harmony within society, tackle inequality and enhance the well being and potential of all people. It aims to do this in two ways -

- by establishing and managing national and international practical projects that actively engage directly with people to improve their lives
- through debate and discussion to help develop ideas and enhance understanding

The charity has its roots firmly embedded in the vision and inspiration of Sir William Beveridge. His seminal 1942 report identified five giants that needed to be tackled, 'idleness, ignorance, disease, squalor and want' in order to effectively reconstruct post war Britain. SWBF believes that his ideas still have a resonance today and merit a wider global application to help all peoples of the world.

The charity's objectives, as set out in its Trust Deed are for the benefit of the public and in particular but not exclusively, the Asian community in the UK and overseas (the community) by,

- (a) the relief of poverty, sickness and distress
- (b) the provision or assistance in the provision of facilities for recreation or other leisure time occupation for individuals in the community who have a need of such facilities by reason of their youth, age, infirmity, financial hardship or social circumstances with the object of improving the conditions of life for such persons
- (c) the relief of unemployment through the provision of education and training or re-training and
- (d) the promotion of research in to the social, political, economic and social care issues affecting, in particular, the elderly and disabled members of the community

ACHIEVEMENT AND PERFORMANCE

Charitable activities

Homecare service, Bangladesh

Sir William Beveridge Foundation's (SWBF) free homecare service that provides quality culturally appropriate care to destitute and vulnerable elderly people in their own homes has been operating successfully in Bangladesh for over five years. The first SWBF operations office was established in Dhaka in 2007 and, under the auspices of the SWBF Executive Director, Head of Operations (Bangladesh) plus senior admin staff, the service spread to cover all the districts of the city. A second operations office was established in Sylhet and SWBF launched a homecare service in the city and surrounding districts in January 2012. As well as providing quality care to the elderly, SWBF also employs people from the local communities that it serves. All those appointed as carers and nurses receive full training in order to carry out personal care services plus other services such as dementia care and end of life care to elderly people in their own homes.

The homecare service operates under licence from the Ministry of Home Affairs, Bangladesh and is registered with the NGO Affairs Bureau, Bangladesh. The success of the homecare project in Bangladesh has been built on the experience of the UK homecare operation that has been providing homecare services for the communities in East London for nearly 12 years.

Through the expansion of its homecare service in Bangladesh, SWBF realised that there was a hidden condition that a number of its elderly service users seemed to be suffering from but was left undiagnosed. This condition was dementia that is unrecognised in Bangladesh both by health professionals and the population at large. SWBF decided to start addressing this hidden problem through the care it provides to its own service users and started the process by forming a partnership with Alzheimer's Australia (WA) Ltd (AAWA) who have considerable experience of working on dementia projects in other parts of Asia. Over the last three years, a number of staff from the SWBF office in Dhaka have visited Perth, Australia where AAWA is based to take part in a 10-day 'training for trainers' programme on dementia care to enable them to cascade what they had learnt to other SWBF care staff. Tutors from AAWA also visited Dhaka to provide training support to care staff in dementia care and a further visit was made by a senior member of SWBF staff again to Perth to learn about the importance of early diagnosis of dementia.

Fundraising activities

Towards the end of 2012, SWBF learnt that it had been successful in its application for a substantial grant from an international body to enable it to run a three year dementia project in Bangladesh to start early in 2013. The project will have two main aims: to establish strong working relationships with health and social care professionals in Bangladesh to help them develop the necessary skills and knowledge for carrying out effective diagnosis of dementia, deliver medical treatments and provide co-ordination and communications links with care and support services that people with dementia and their families need, also to raise awareness of the condition among decision-makers and influence policy making on dementia. A dementia unit will be established in the SWBF Dhaka office to be headed by a Medical Director that will manage the project.

Fundraising and developing partnerships at national and international levels are constant areas of work for SWBF in order to ensure sustainability of the projects it has already started and to expand its services in the future to cover more people in need. They are especially important to enable SWBF to realise a long-term project to build a care village in Bangladesh to be sited to the north of Dhaka. The land for this village, to be called 'Beveridge Gardens,' has already been secured and the buildings will include a care home for destitute elderly people, a dementia clinic and dementia care home plus a hospice for those people coming towards the end of their lives. SWBF will provide residents with all-round holistic care covering medical, personal, dementia and end of life care services as well as providing emotional support and social activities. It will also provide employment opportunities for people in the locality who would receive full training in all aspects of providing such care.

Internal and external factors

'Ankur' - Beveridge Foundation School

The SWBF free school Ankur, is progressing well after the initial pilot. Students are attending the main school and graduating to state schools with continuing support from SWBF. A small nursery school has also been established in order to prepare the children for the main school. The students and the school are supported through a successful Sponsor A Child fundraising initiative organised through the SWBF website. The teachers are employed by SWBF and all school materials plus a daily nutritious meal are provided to all students for free. The intention is to reach the poorest and most destitute children that otherwise would not receive an education of any kind.

United Nations

SWBF was extremely proud to be granted 'special consultative' status with the Economic and Social Council of the United Nations in 2012 after a 14-month deliberation. This will enable SWBF to take part in UN conferences and submit papers to various UN bodies on topics concerned with the work that it is pursuing including taking part on the consultation for developing the post 2015 Millennium Development Goals.

Other developments

SWBF has formed a partnership with a UK hospice in order to provide a culturally appropriate and holistic end of life care service to people in their own homes living in East London. At present, 10 SWBF UK care staff have completed a 16 week end of life care training course provided by the hospice to build on the knowledge and skills they already had. The intention was also to enable them to fully understand the roles of specialised end of life care professionals and have the opportunity to work with them as part of a team.

The Executive Director and senior staff from SWBF attended and gave a presentation to the All Party Parliamentary Group, Bangladesh in the UK House of Commons in 2012. A short film featuring the SWBF homecare service in Dhaka and Sylhet was shown to the MPs, peers and other guests attending. The intention is to build on this first meeting and raise awareness of SWBF's activities in the UK and Bangladesh among decision-makers in the UK.

SWBF is updating and refreshing its website and has established an account on twitter that is enabling it to spread messages about its work and raise its profile to a worldwide audience.

FINANCIAL REVIEW

Reserves policy

The board of trustees have examined the charity's requirement for reserves in light of the main risks to the organisation. It has established a policy to set aside surplus unrestricted funds in order to pay for staff redundancy, compensation claims and other contingencies. All monies remitted to Bangladesh are kept in deposit accounts and only the interest from these accounts can be utilised for charitable projects. At the balance sheet date balances on these accounts amounted to £539,224 (2012 - £408,977).

FINANCIAL REVIEW

Principal funding sources

The principal funding source during the period was a grant received in the sum of £190,000 (2012 - £175,000) from its sister charity Majlish Homecare Services Limited

FUTURE DEVELOPMENTS

Expanding elderly services through Homecare and Care Homes in Bangladesh The Foundation intends to expand its existing homecare service in Bangladesh to cover more districts in Dhaka, Sylhet, Comilla and Chittagong and so reach more vulnerable elderly people in need but to do so in a planned and sustainable way

An extension of this homecare service concepts involves a plan to design, build and maintain a series of 12 care homes for vulnerable elderly people across the northern regions of Bangladesh The main focus will be on providing free culturally-appropriate secular accommodation for elderly climate refugees who have been made homeless because of environment disasters that are primarily hitting the south of the country These disasters are set to become worse and more frequent in the coming years due to global climate changes

The land for the first of these care homes, to be called 'Beveridge Gardens' has been acquired a few miles north of Dhaka City As well as providing a good quality home for the elderly people with appropriate personal and medical care provided by fully trained and professional staff employed by the Foundation, there will be leisure and recreational facilities including a garden for residents to enjoy and organised trips out The emphasis will be on quality of life, respects and dignity

International Dementia Conference

SWBF is organising and will host an international conference on dementia to be held in Dhaka towards the end of 2013 The conference will also cover issues around the challenges that an ageing population brings for a developing country and the aim is to attract authoritative and renowned speakers and delegates from around the world as well as from Bangladesh

Oxford University research project

A research project will be conducted by the Institute of Population Ageing at Oxford University over 2013 to assess the impact that the SWBF homecare service has had in Dhaka during the five years that it has been in operation The data gleaned from this research will provide rich information to help inform future funding bids from national and international funding bodies

SIR WILLIAM BEVERIDGE FOUNDATION LIMITED

We have audited the financial statements of SIR WILLIAM BEVERIDGE FOUNDATION LIMITED for the year ended 31 May 2013 on pages nine to sixteen. The financial reporting framework that has been applied in their preparation is applicable law and the Financial Reporting Standard for Smaller Entities (effective April 2008) (United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice applicable to Smaller Entities).

This report is made solely to the charitable company's members, as a body, in accordance with Chapter 3 of Part 16 of the Companies Act 2006. Our audit work has been undertaken so that we might state to the charitable company's members those matters we are required to state to them in an auditors' report and for no other purpose. To the fullest extent permitted by law, we do not accept or assume responsibility to anyone other than the charitable company and the charitable company's members as a body, for our audit work, for this report, or for the opinions we have formed.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and auditors

As explained more fully in the Statement of Trustees Responsibilities set out on page five, the trustees (who are also the directors of the charitable company for the purposes of company law) are responsible for the preparation of the financial statements and for being satisfied that they give a true and fair view.

Our responsibility is to audit and express an opinion on the financial statements in accordance with applicable law and International Standards on Auditing (UK and Ireland). Those standards require us to comply with the Auditing Practices Board's Ethical Standards for Auditors.

Scope of the audit of the financial statements

An audit involves obtaining evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements sufficient to give reasonable assurance that the financial statements are free from material misstatement, whether caused by fraud or error. This includes an assessment of whether the accounting policies are appropriate to the charitable company's circumstances and have been consistently applied and adequately disclosed, the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by the trustees, and the overall presentation of the financial statements. In addition, we read all the financial and non-financial information in the Report of the Trustees to identify material inconsistencies with the audited financial statements. If we become aware of any apparent material misstatements or inconsistencies we consider the implications for our report.

Qualified opinion on financial statements arising from

We have not been able to carry out any physical audit work to the arm of the charity in Bangladesh. This is due to the political unrest in the country which has made visiting too dangerous. We have therefore relied upon information supplied to us by the charity's Chartered Accountants in Dhaka, Shiziraz Khan Basak & Co.

We have been unable to verify the validity of the transaction in prior year adjustments (note 11) on page 15 of these financial statements.

Opinion on other matter prescribed by the Companies Act 2006

In our opinion the information given in the Report of the Trustees for the financial year for which the financial statements are prepared is consistent with the financial statements.

Report of the Independent Auditors to the Members of
SIR WILLIAM BEVERIDGE FOUNDATION LIMITED

Matters on which we are required to report by exception

We have nothing to report in respect of the following matters where the Companies Act 2006 requires us to report to you if, in our opinion

- adequate accounting records have not been kept or returns adequate for our audit have not been received from branches not visited by us, or
- the financial statements are not in agreement with the accounting records and returns, or
- certain disclosures of trustees' remuneration specified by law are not made, or
- we have not received all the information and explanations we require for our audit, or
- the trustees were not entitled to prepare the financial statements in accordance with the small companies regime and take advantage of the small companies exemption in preparing the Report of the Trustees
