In the case of a proxy appointed by a corporation, the instrument of appointment may be executed by a director or the secretary or any other senior representative of the appointor and, unless the Chairman of the Meeting (or, as the case may be, the person conducting the poll) has cause to doubt the authority of the person so executing such instrument (in which case the Meeting shall be adjourned, or the taking of the poll shall be postponed, for 24 hours), no evidence shall be required of the authority under which such instrument is executed. In any other case where an instrument appointing a proxy is executed on behalf of the appointor, the authority under which it is executed (or a copy of such authority certified notarially or in some other way appointed by the directors) shall be deposited together with the instrument itself in accordance with paragraph (a) of this Article 8.

The Meeting shall be deemed to have been validly conducted notwithstanding that a Director's telephone is accidentally disconnected during the Meeting, and the proceedings thereof shall be deemed to be as valid as if the telephone had not been disconnected.

A minute of the proceedings shall be sufficient evidence thereof and of the observance of all necessary formalities if certified by the Chairman and the Secretary.
