Directors' Responsibility

Company law requires the director to prepare financial statements that gives a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the Company at the end of its financial year and of the profit or loss of the Company for that period. In preparing those financial statements, the director is required to:

- Select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently
- Make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent
- State whether the Financial Reporting Standard for Smaller Entities has been followed
- Prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis

The director is responsible for keeping proper accounting records that disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the Company and enables her to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 1985. The director is also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the Company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

The director's report is prepared in accordance with the special provisions of Part VII of the Companies Act 1985 relating to small companies.

FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

FOR THE PERIOD 26 MARCH 2007 TO 31 MARCH 2008

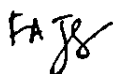

ACCOUNTANT'S REPORT

I have prepared, on the basis of the information contained in the Company's accounting records and provided by the Company's directors and without carrying out an audit or examination, the annexed accounts for the period 26 March 2007 to 31 March 2008 to assist the directors to meet their statutory responsibilities.

As described in the Directors Report, the Company's directors are responsible for the preparation of the accounts and they believe that the Company is exempt from an audit.

I have not conducted an audit on the financial statements in accordance with Audit Standards or any examination in respect of this or any other reporting requirement issued by the Auditing Practises Board and accordingly I express no opinion thereon.

My work does not provide any assurance that the accounting records and financial statements are free from material misstatement.
