I/We as director(s) / the majority of directors apply for this company to be struck off the Register and declare that:

i) none of the circumstances described in section 1004 or 1005 of the Companies Act 2006 (being circumstances in which the directors would otherwise be prohibited under those sections from making an application) exists in relation to the company and

ii) we have complied with the requirements of sections 1006 and 1007 of the Act and have given/will give copies of the application to the people listed in those sections as required. ①

This form must be signed by the sole director if only 1, by both if there are 2, or by the majority if there are more than 2.

→ Go to Section 3 'Name(s) and Signature(s) of the directors'

① Please read the guidance on our website at www.companieshouse.gov.uk or section 1004 or 1005 of the Companies Act 2006 for circumstances under which an application may not be made.

Please note that on dissolution all property and rights etc will be passed to the Crown.

and a very high percentage of Americans do not understand the difference between the two. The fact that the word "terrorism" is so widely used in the popular press, and that it is so often used in a way that is not only incorrect but also misleading, is a very serious problem. The word "terrorism" is a very serious word, and it is a word that should be used very carefully. It is a word that should be used only when it is absolutely necessary to describe a very serious and dangerous act. It is a word that should be used only when it is absolutely necessary to describe a very serious and dangerous act.

1. The first step in the process of identifying a problem is to recognize that a problem exists. This is often done by comparing current performance with a desired state or goal. If there is a significant difference, a problem is identified.
