5. POST BALANCE SHEET EVENTS

On 2nd October 2012, the lease for the golf club was re-possessed by the landlord without proper notice being given to the company. As a result the company has had no alternative but to suspend trading.

The company and the directors are currently taking legal advice on the course of action necessary to wrest back control of the golf club. The directors are reasonably confident of a successful outcome, but the legal process will be long and protracted and therefore making it difficult to predict when the company may recommence trading.
