QH Participations Limited
Directors' Report for the Period ended 2 February 2013

The directors present their report together with the audited financial statements for the period ended 2 February 2013

Principal activity

The principal activity of the company is that of an investment holding company

Business review

There was a profit for the period after taxation amounting to £77.3m (2012: £82.0m). The profit arose from dividends received from Harrods Holdings Limited and QH Partners Limited. The company paid a dividend during the period of £70.0m (2012: £78.0m).

Directors of the company

The membership of the Board is set out below. All served on the Board throughout the period unless otherwise noted.

H A Al-Abdulla

A M Al-Sayed

K Maamria

K J Al-Kuwari

M A Ward

Going concern

The directors consider it appropriate for these financial statements to be prepared on a going concern basis as the company's parent undertaking has indicated that it will not call for repayment of amounts due to the group undertakings without first ensuring that the company has adequate funds to meet its obligations as they fall due.

KPIs

There are no other KPIs required to be reported other than turnover and operating profit that would give a fuller understanding to the business.

QH Participations Limited

Statement of Directors' Responsibilities

The Directors are responsible for preparing the Directors' Report and the financial statements in accordance with applicable law and regulations

Company law requires the directors to prepare financial statements for each financial year. Under that law the directors have elected to prepare the financial statements in accordance with United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice (United Kingdom Accounting Standards and applicable law). Under company law the directors must not approve the financial statements unless they are satisfied that they give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company and of the profit or loss of the company for that period. In preparing these financial statements, the directors are required to

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently,
- make judgments and accounting estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- state whether applicable UK Accounting Standards have been followed, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements,
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the company will continue in business.

The directors are responsible for keeping adequate accounting records that are sufficient to show and explain the company's transactions and disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the company and enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 2006. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

The directors are responsible for the maintenance and integrity of the corporate and financial information included on the company's website. Legislation in the United Kingdom governing the preparation and dissemination of financial statements may differ from legislation in other jurisdictions.

Disclosure of information to the auditors

Each director has taken steps that they ought to have taken as a director in order to make themselves aware of any relevant audit information and to establish that the company's auditors are aware of that information. The directors confirm that there is no relevant information that they know of and which they know the auditors are unaware of.

Reappointment of auditors

Ernst & Young LLP were appointed as auditors on 12th January 2012.

The auditors Ernst & Young LLP are deemed to be reappointed under section 487(2) of the Companies Act 2006.

Independent Auditor's Report to the Members of QH Participations Limited

We have audited the financial statements of QH Participations Limited for the period from 29 January 2012 to 2 February 2013 which comprises the Profit and Loss Account, the Balance Sheet, the Principal Accounting Policies on page 7 and the related notes 1 to 16. The financial reporting framework that has been applied in their preparation is applicable law and United Kingdom Accounting Standards (United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice).

This report is made solely to the company's members, as a body, in accordance with Chapter 3 of Part 16 of the Companies Act 2006. Our audit work has been undertaken so that we might state to the company's members those matters we are required to state to them in an auditor's report and for no other purpose. To the fullest extent permitted by law, we do not accept or assume responsibility to anyone other than the company and the company's members as a body, for our audit work, for this report, or for the opinions we have formed.

Respective responsibilities of directors and auditors

As explained more fully in the Statement of Directors' Responsibilities set out on page 2, the directors are responsible for the preparation of the financial statements and for being satisfied that they give a true and fair view. Our responsibility is to audit and express an opinion on the financial statements in accordance with applicable law and International Standards on Auditing (UK and Ireland). Those standards require us to comply with the Auditing Practices Board's (APB's) Ethical Standards for Auditors.

Scope of the audit of the financial statements

An audit involves obtaining evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements sufficient to give reasonable assurance that the financial statements are free from material misstatement, whether caused by fraud or error. This includes an assessment of whether the accounting policies are appropriate to the company's circumstances and have been consistently applied and adequately disclosed, the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by the directors, and the overall presentation of the financial statements. In addition, we read all the financial and non-financial information in the Directors' Report to identify material inconsistencies with the audited financial statements. If we become aware of any apparent material misstatements or inconsistencies we consider the implications for our report.

Opinion on the financial statements

In our opinion the financial statements

- give a true and fair view of the state of the company's affairs as at 2 February 2013 and of its profit for the period then ended,
- have been properly prepared in accordance with United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice, and
- have been prepared in accordance with the requirements of the Companies Act 2006.

Opinion on other matter prescribed by the Companies Act 2006

In our opinion the information given in the Directors' Report for the financial period for which the financial statements are prepared is consistent with the financial statements.

Matters on which we are required to report by exception

We have nothing to report in respect of the following matters where the Companies Act 2006 requires us to report to you if, in our opinion

- adequate accounting records have not been kept, or returns adequate for our audit have not been received from branches not visited by us, or
- the financial statements are not in agreement with the accounting records and returns, or
- certain disclosures of directors' remuneration specified by law are not made, or
- we have not received all the information and explanations we require for our audit

1 Accounting policies

Basis of preparation

The financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost convention and in accordance with United Kingdom applicable accounting standards

The principal accounting policies of the company have remained unchanged from the previous period and are set out below

The directors consider it appropriate for these financial statements to be prepared on a going concern basis as the company's parent undertaking has indicated that it will not call for repayment of amounts due to the group undertakings without first ensuring that the company has adequate funds to meet its obligations as they fall due

The principal accounting policies of the company are set out below

QH Participations Limited is a wholly owned subsidiary of Harrods Group (Holding) Limited which produces Group accounts in accordance with the Companies Act 2006. Consequently the company has taken advantage of the exemption permitted by section 400 of the Act from producing Group accounts. These accounts therefore present information about the company and not about its group.

Harrods Group (Holding) Limited produces a consolidated cash flow statement in accordance with Financial Reporting Standard No 1 (FRS1). Consequently the company has taken advantage of the exemption in FRS1 from producing a cash flow statement.

Investments

Investments are included at cost less provision for impairment where appropriate.

Dividend Income

Revenue is recognised when the Group's right to receive payment is established.

15 Transactions with directors and other related parties

As at the beginning of the financial year (29 January 2012), QH Participations Limited had a loan facility agreement with Qatar Holding LLC, the ultimate controlling party, for £862m of which £848.2m had been drawn down. Under the terms of the loan arrangement, the facility was structured into two tranches, the first for £480m being interest bearing at a rate of 6.25% per annum, and the second tranche of £382m being interest free. The assigned loan (£848.2m) utilised the full draw down facility on the interest bearing tranche (£480m) and £368.2m of the interest-free tranche.

During the year ended 2 February 2013, a total of £27.5m of interest was paid and £2.5m was accrued (2012 £25.0m accrued). The prior year interest payable of £25.0m was also paid during the year.

Also during the year ended 2 February 2013, a further £3.5m was drawn down on the interest free tranche of the loan. In addition, on the 31st of January 2013, a further interest free facility of £40m was granted by Qatar Holding LLC which was fully drawn down. The outstanding balance at the end of the year was £891.7m (2012 £848.2m).

The Company has taken advantage of the exemption in Financial Reporting Standard No 8 "Related Party Disclosures" and has not disclosed transactions with company undertakings.

16 Ultimate parent undertaking

The company's immediate parent undertaking is Harrods Group (Holding) Limited, a company incorporated in the United Kingdom. The largest and smallest group of undertakings for which group accounts have been drawn up is that headed by Harrods Group (Holding) Limited. The group accounts will be filed with the Registrar of Companies in due course.

The company is an indirect 100% subsidiary of Qatar Holding LLC which is the strategic investment arm of Qatar Investment Authority, the ultimate controlling party.
