- (d) one or more of the Relevant Racecourse(s) cease to be operated as a Racecourse save where such cessation (i) is on a temporary basis only, (ii) is for the purpose of carrying out any renovation or repair and (iii) has been agreed by the Board acting reasonably occurs in respect of any Relevant Racecourse(s) (but not all Relevant Racecourses) the rights attaching to that A Share attributable to the Relevant Racecourse(s) in respect of which a Partial Deferral Event shall have occurred shall cease with effect from the occurrence of the Partial Deferral Event upon the issue of a Partial Deferral Notice in accordance with Article 3.13.2.

3.13.2 The Board shall issue a notice stating that a Partial Deferral Event has occurred (a "Partial Deferral Notice") promptly upon becoming aware of a Partial Deferral Event, save that it may delay issue of the Partial Deferral

Notice for such period as it sees fit (but not exceeding 90 days), if, acting reasonably, it considers:

- (a) that the Partial Deferral Event is caused inadvertently or is of a "technical" nature; and
- (b) that the Partial Deferral Event may be remedied within the period of suspension and that the relevant parties will use all reasonable endeavours to bring about such remedy.

4.12.3 Upon issue of a Partial Deferral Notice, the existing share certificate(s) in respect of the A Share shall automatically be cancelled and shall be returned by the member to the company and a new share certificate in respect of that A Share noting only the continuing Relevant Racecourse(s) shall be issued. The register of members shall be amended accordingly.

4. Allotment and Issue of Shares

4.1 Subject to Article 13.3.2, Article 4.2, and Article 4.5 the Board may allot and issue an A Share to any person who:

4.3 Any A Share issued pursuant to Article 4.1 shall be numbered and issued in respect of one or more Racecourses and the name of the Racecourse(s) shall be noted on the certificate in respect of each A Share and in the register of members against such A Share.

4.4 A member may hold more than one A Share but shall not, for the avoidance of doubt, hold more than one A Share in respect of any one Racecourse.

4.5 Subject to Articles 13.3.2 and 4.2, the decision of the Board as to whether or not to allot and issue any A Share to any person (including any decision as to terms relating to such allotment and issue, including as to price) shall be at its sole discretion and the Board shall not be under any obligation to issue any A Share to a person (including any member), regardless of whether they are able to fulfil the conditions in Article 4.1.

4.6 In the event that a member holds an A Share in respect of which there is more than one Relevant Racecourse, such member may request that the Board allots and issues further A Shares in respect of any one or more of such Relevant Racecourses, in which case, subject to the foregoing provisions of this Article 4 and subject always to the approval requirements of Article 13.3.2, the Board shall, against payment of the par value of any additional A Shares to be issued:

4.6.1 issue A Shares in respect of such Relevant Racecourses and issue new share certificates in respect of the new A Shares and a new certificate in respect of the existing A Shares, without the names of those Relevant Racecourses in respect of which new A Shares shall have been issued; and

- 4.6.2 amend the register of members so as to remove reference against the existing A Share to those Relevant Racecourses in respect of which new A Shares shall have been issued and to register the new A Shares. The old share certificate shall automatically be cancelled and shall be returned by the member to the company.

5. Initial Authority to Allot Relevant Securities

Subject to the provisions of these Articles, the Directors are unconditionally authorised pursuant to section 551 of the Act to exercise all powers of the company to allot relevant securities. The authority conferred on the Directors by this Article shall remain in force for a period of five (5) years from the date of adoption of this Article but may be revoked, varied or renewed from time to time by the company in general meeting in accordance with the Act.

6. Exclusion of Rights to Offers on a Pre-emptive Basis

Section 561 and 562 of the Act shall not apply to the allotment by the company of any equity security.

7. Restriction on Dealing with Shares

- 7.1 Subject to Article 7.2, no Disposal of any A Share or any legal or beneficial interest in any A Shares shall be permitted except pursuant to a Sale.

- 7.2 A member may with the prior written consent of the company sell the entire legal and beneficial interest in any A Share held by such member to a Racecourse Licence Holder who has acquired the Relevant Racecourse(s) and who has entered into a Licence Agreement (or a novation agreement in respect of an existing Licence Agreement) in respect of the Relevant Racecourse(s) in a form satisfactory to the company.

- 7.3 No Disposal of any Deferred Share shall be permitted except a Disposal pursuant to Article 3.12.2.

- 7.4 No disposal of any legal or beneficial interest in any B Share or Ordinary Share shall be permitted save pursuant to a Sale or following a Listing or with the prior written consent of the Company, such consent not to be unreasonably withheld where the transfer is to a transferee to whom a transfer of A Shares is made under Article 7.2.

8. Transfer of Shares

Any transfer of Shares made in accordance with these Articles shall be registered promptly. The Directors shall decline to register any transfer of shares, which is not made in accordance with these Articles. Model Article 26 (5) shall not apply.

9. Calling General Meetings

- 9.1 The Directors may call general meetings and either:

- 9.1.1 on the requisition of members of the company representing not less than one tenth of the total voting rights on a poll of all the members having at the date of the deposited requisition a right to vote at general meetings of the company; or

- 9.1.2 in the event that the Board receives notice from a Representative Director pursuant to Article 13.3, shall proceed to convene an extraordinary general meeting such meeting to be held within 28 days or such later date as the requisitioning members or the relevant Representative Director shall agree with the Board. If the Board shall fail to convene a meeting in accordance with this Article then the requisitioning members or the notifying Representative Director may convene such meeting and their reasonable costs in doing so shall be reimbursed by the company.

9.2 All general meetings of the company shall be called by at least 21 Clear Days' notice. The notice shall specify the time and place of the meeting and the general nature of the business to be transacted.

9.3 Notwithstanding the provisions of Article 9.2 above, general meetings may be called by shorter notice if so agreed by a majority of members having a right to attend and vote at the general meeting together representing not less than 95% of the total voting rights on a poll of all members entitled to vote at the general meeting.

9.4 The accidental omission to give notice of the general meeting to, or the non-receipt of a notice of a general meeting by, any person entitled to receive notice shall not invalidate the proceedings at that meeting.

9.5 Where a member is a firm, unincorporated association or body corporate, a member shall appoint a representative to act on its behalf at all members' meetings and to exercise all the member's rights as a member of the company. Such appointment, or its revocation, shall take effect immediately following delivery by the member of a notice in writing to the Chairman or the secretary at the company's registered office from time to time.

10. Proceedings at General Meetings

10.1 No business shall be transacted at any general meeting unless a quorum is present. Quorum shall be 3 members (or a proxy for a member or duly authorised representative of a member appointed in accordance with Article 9.5), one of whom shall have a right (with or without other members) to appoint a Director under Article 15.3.1, one of whom shall have a right (with other members) to appoint a Director under Article 15.3.2 and one of whom shall have a right (with other members) to appoint a Director under Article 15.3.3. In the event that no member of any one or more such categories exists, the quorum requirement shall be reduced accordingly.

10.2 If within 30 minutes from the time appointed for the general meeting a quorum is not present, the meeting shall stand adjourned to the same day in the next week, at the same time and place, or to such other day and at such other time and place as the Board may determine. If at the adjourned meeting a quorum is not present within 30 minutes from the time appointed the meeting shall stand adjourned again on the same basis. If at the second adjourned general meeting a quorum is not present within 30 minutes from the time appointed for the meeting, the members present shall be a quorum.

10.3 The Chairman or the Senior Independent Non-Executive Director shall preside as chairman of every general meeting, or if he shall not be present within 15 minutes of the time appointed for the holding of the meeting or is not willing to act, the Board shall elect one of their number to be chairman of the meeting. If no Director is willing to act as chairman or if no Director is present within 15 minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting, the members present shall choose one of their number to be chairman of the meeting. Model Article 39 shall not apply.

10.4 The chairman of a general meeting may, with the consent of any general meeting of the company at which a quorum is present (and shall if so directed by the meeting), adjourn the meeting from time to time and from place to place, but no business shall be transacted at any adjourned general meeting other than the business left unfinished at the general meeting from which the adjournment took place. When a general meeting is adjourned for 30 days or more, notice of the adjourned general meeting shall be given as in the case of an original meeting. Save as provided above, it shall not be necessary to give any notice of an adjourned general meeting or of the business to be transacted at the adjourned meeting. Model Article 41 shall not apply.

- 10.5 At any general meeting of the company a resolution put to the vote of the meeting shall (except as set out below) be decided on a show of hands unless a poll is (before or on the declaration of the result of the show of hands) demanded by any one member present in person or by proxy. Unless a poll is so demanded a declaration by the chairman of the meeting that a resolution has on a show of hands been carried unanimously, or by a particular majority, or lost and an entry to that effect in the book containing the minutes of proceedings of the company shall be conclusive evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against such resolution. The demand for a poll may be withdrawn. Model Articles 42 and 44 shall not apply.
- 10.6 A poll demanded on the election of a chairman of any general meeting pursuant to Article 10.5 or on a question of adjournment of a general meeting shall be taken forthwith and, on any other question or matter, if a poll is duly demanded it shall be taken in such manner as the chairman of the general meeting directs and the result of the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the general meeting at which the poll was demanded.
- 10.7 A poll shall be taken at such time as the chairman of the general meeting directs and any business other than that upon which a poll has been demanded may proceed pending the taking of the poll.
- 10.8 A resolution in writing signed by all the members for the time being entitled to receive notice of and to attend and vote at general meetings (or being firms, unincorporated associations or corporations by their duly authorised representatives) shall be as valid and effective as if the same had been passed at a general meeting of the company duly convened and held.
- 10.9 Any one Director or failing him the secretary (or in the case of a local authority a duly authorised member or officer) of a body corporate which is a member (not being its representative as appointed pursuant to Article 9.5) or any one partner in a firm or any one member of an unincorporated association which shall have a nominated representative (who is not himself such a representative appointed pursuant to Article 9.5) may attend any general meeting of the company without any right of voting thereat except in the absence of the representative or a proxy holder appointed by the member in question. In such absence, such other person attending the general meeting as set out above shall, at the discretion of the Chairman, be entitled to vote as if he were that representative but no member shall thereby be permitted to exercise more than one vote.
- 10.10 In the case of an equality of votes at a general meeting, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, the chairman of the meeting shall not be entitled to a second or casting vote.
11. Proxies
- 11.1 The instrument appointing a proxy and the power of attorney or other authority, if any, under which it is signed or a certified copy of that power or authority shall be deposited either at the company's then registered office or at such other place within the United Kingdom as is specified for that purpose in the notice convening the general meeting, or if brought to the meeting by the proxy holder deposited with the Secretary or his representative at the place where the general meeting is to be held before the time shown in the notice for holding the general meeting or adjourned meeting at which the person named in the instrument proposes to vote and in any event not later than immediately before the meeting proceeds to business, and in default the instrument of proxy shall not be treated as valid.

11.2 The instrument appointing a proxy shall be signed by or on behalf of the appointer. A proxy need not be a member of the company. However, if a member is appointed as a proxy such member shall have an additional vote (or such additional weighted voting on a poll) in addition to its own vote and be counted as an additional member present for the purposes of the quorum of the meeting for each member in respect of which such member is appointed proxy.

11.3 An instrument appointing a proxy shall be in the following form or a form as near thereto as circumstances allow or in any other form which is usual or the Board may approve:

Signed this day of 20

11.4 The instrument appointing a proxy shall be deemed to confer authority to demand or join in demanding a poll.

11.5 A vote given in accordance with the terms of an instrument of proxy shall be valid notwithstanding the revocation or determination of the proxy or of the authority under which the proxy was executed, unless notice of the revocation or determination was received by the company before the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the proxy is to be used, proceeds to business.

11.6 Model Articles 45 and 46 shall not apply.

12. Participation at General Meetings

Any one (1) or more members may participate in and vote at general meetings by means of a conference telephone or any communication equipment, which allows all persons participating in the meeting to hear each other. Any member so participating in a meeting shall be deemed to be present in person and shall count towards the quorum. Such a meeting shall be deemed to take place where the largest group of those participating is assembled or, if there is no such group, where the chairman of the meeting then is.

13. Powers and duties of the Directors

- 13.1 Subject to the provisions of Articles 13.3, the Board shall have sole control in regard to the business, affairs, management and organisation of the company. In addition to the powers and authorities conferred by these Articles or otherwise expressly conferred upon them they may exercise all such powers and do all such acts and things as may be exercised or done by the company and are not hereby or by statute expressly directed or required to be exercised or done by the company in general meeting.
