INTERPRETATION

2. In these Articles:-

"The Property" means:	the land and buildings described in the Memorandum of Association.
"Residence" means:	any residential unit comprised in the Property.
"Resident" means:	the leaseholder, tenant or freeholder of a Residence but so that should two or more persons be Residents of a Residence they shall be deemed to be one Resident for the purposes of these Articles.

3. In Regulation 1 of Table A there shall be inserted before the words "office" and "secretary" the word "the" and between the words "regulations" and "the Act" the words "and in any regulations adopting in whole or in part the same". The definition of the "the holder" shall be deleted therefrom.

MEMBERS

4. The members of the Company shall be the subscribers to the Memorandum of Association, the Residents of the Property and such other persons as shall be admitted to membership under the provision of the Articles hereof.

5. A subscriber may nominate in writing any person (other than a Resident) to succeed him as a member and any such person shall have the same power to nominate a successor as if he had himself been a subscriber.

6. Any person who is not a Resident and has been admitted to membership in accordance with the provisions of these Articles shall resign as a member as soon as the Residents of all the Residences have been admitted to membership of the Company.

7. Save as contained in the provisions of these Articles no person shall be admitted to membership who is not a Resident.

8. A Resident shall not be entitled to cease his membership while holding, whether alone or jointly with others, a legal estate in any Residence.

Should two or more persons be Residents of a Residence they shall both comply and shall be deemed to be one member and the voting rights of that member shall be exercised by the person whose name appears first in the Register of Members.

10. If any member parts with all interest in the Residence held in his name, and if his interest therein ceases and determines in the event of his death or bankruptcy, he shall cease to be a member and the person who becomes the Resident of his Residence shall be entitled to be registered as a member of the Company.

GENERAL MEETINGS AND RESOLUTIONS

11. (a) General meetings shall be called by at least fourteen clear days' notice but a general meeting may be called by shorter notice if is so agreed by a majority in number of the members having a right to attend and vote. The notice shall specify the time and place of the meeting and the general nature of the business to be transacted.

(b) Subject to any rights or restrictions attached to any members, on a show of hands every member who (being an individual) is present in person or by proxy, or

(being a corporation) is present by a duly authorised representative, unless the proxy (in either case) or the representative is himself a member entitled to vote, shall have one vote and on a poll every member shall have one vote. If and so long as the Company shall have one member only, that person alone present in person or by proxy or by a duly authorised representative shall be a quorum and in such instance, a proxy for a sole member shall be entitled to vote on a show of hands.

(c) In every notice convening a General Meeting of the Company there shall appear with reasonable prominence a statement that a Member entitled to attend and vote is entitled to appoint a proxy to attend and, on a poll, or a show of hands to vote instead of him and that such proxy need not also be a Member.

(d) Regulations 38 and 59 of Table A shall be modified accordingly.

(e) Proxies may be deposited at the Registered Office of the Company at any time before the time of the Meeting for which they are to be used unless otherwise specified in the notice convening such Meeting. The Directors may at their discretion treat an electronic communication appointing a proxy as a proxy for the purposes of this Article. Regulation 62 of Table A shall be modified accordingly.

12. Subject to the provisions of this Article any member present in person or by proxy at a General Meeting shall have one vote. Where no Resident exists in respect of any Residence those members who are subscribers to the Memorandum of Association of the Company or who were admitted to membership in accordance with the provisions of Article 5 shall jointly have one vote in respect of each such Residence in addition to their own votes as members.

13. At any general meeting a resolution put to the vote of the meeting shall be decided on a show of hands unless before or immediately following the declaration of the result of the show of hands a poll is demanded by the Chairman or any member present in person or by proxy and entitled to vote. Unless a poll be so demanded a declaration by the Chairman that a resolution has on a show of hands been carried (whether unanimously or by a particular majority) or lost and an entry to that effect made in the book containing the minutes of the proceedings of the meeting shall be conclusive evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of votes recorded in such vote. Regulation 46 of Table A shall not apply to the Company.

14. Except as provided in these Articles, if a poll is duly demanded it shall be taken in such manner as the Chairman directs, and the result of the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded.

15. (a) Unless and until otherwise determined by the Company in General Meeting there shall be no maximum number of Directors and the minimum number of Directors shall be one. Whenever there shall be only one Director of the Company such Director may act alone in exercising all the powers, discretions and authorities vested in the Directors, and Regulation 89 of Table A shall be modified accordingly.

(b) Subject to paragraph (a) above, the Company may by Ordinary Resolution in General Meeting appoint any person who is willing to act to be a Director, either to fill a vacancy or as an additional Director.

(c) The Directors may appoint a person who is willing to act to be a Director, either to fill a vacancy or as an additional Director, provided that the appointment does not cause the number of Directors to exceed any number determined by the Company in General Meeting as the maximum number of Directors for the time being in force.

(d) Regulation 84 of Table A shall be modified by the deletion of the last sentence therefrom.

Subject to such disclosure a Director shall be entitled to vote in respect of any such contract, transaction or arrangement (whether actual or proposed) in which he is interested and he shall be counted in reckoning whether a quorum is present.

(b) Regulations 94 to 97 (inclusive) of Table A shall not apply to the Company.

22. The Directors may determine such rules or procedures as they deem fit for the efficient running of the Company. The Company in General Meeting shall have power to amend or repeal such rules or procedures which shall be binding on all members of the Company for as long as they remain in force.
